Do The (RED) Thing

(RED) is just a color to some, yet to the students at St. Clair High School the color (RED) is a symbol of who we are. (RED) and blue sets us apart and distinguishes us as St. Clair Saints. The color (RED) has many meanings. (RED) is a symbol of energy, strength, power, determination, desire and passion. No better color could be chosen to represent the people that try their hardest everyday at St. Clair High School. (RED) shines through in everything at St. Clair High School.

Although (RED) is a symbol of many different things, it is mainly a symbol of the unity that holds our school together. (RED) is what unites us all. (RED) is everyone's school color. It does not matter if it is a (RED) football helmet, student council banner or (RED) colorguard costume; they are all the same (RED). No matter who you are or what you do...we all share the same

After the hustle and bustle of the in school hours students look forward to events after school. Whether it is a fun Friday night dance or an intense game of Powder Buff volleyball, here at SCHS something is always going on. Students indulge themselves in coffee and sweets at the coffee house where participants present skits, pieces of music, recite poetry and a variety of other performances. Following the coffee house is the Festival of the Arts which includes an art show, performances by the band, theater and choir, as well as performances showcasing individual talents. Dances always are a hit with students. The week of Homecoming, Winterfest, and Prom students participate in Spirit Week by wearing class colors, goofy attire and playing silly games. No matter which dance it may be, students always come prepared to dance the night away. The junior and senior girls got tough and fought for the title of Powder Puff Champs. Both boys and girls made tough teams to compete in the Dodgeball tournament against one another. Select students practiced and prepared for the Special Olympics where they competed against other schools. Outside of school is student life where students participate in activities around the community such as jobs, hanging out at local establishments and other leisurely activities. On weekdays or weekends, SCHS students fill their short high school years with fun events that will later be thought of as missed memories of the past.

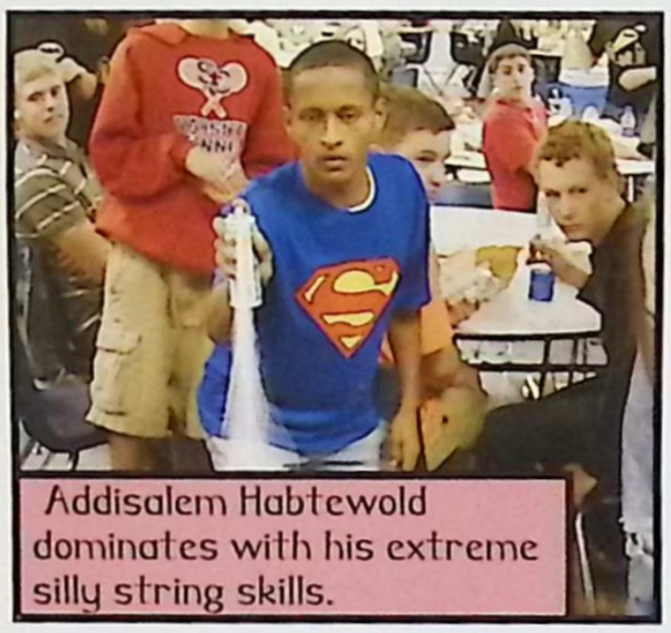
HOMECOMING



Addisalem Habtewold dominates with his extreme silly string skills.

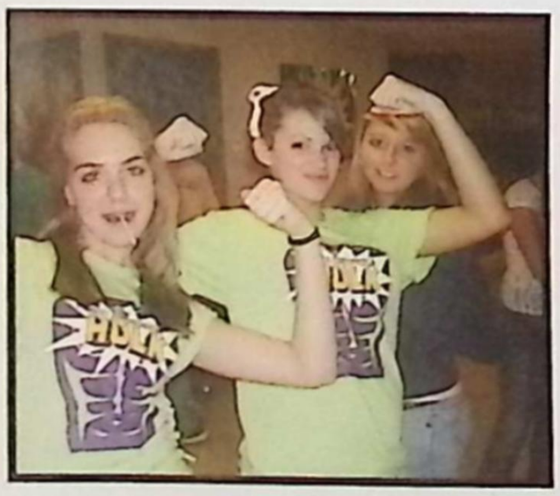
Connor "Ketchup Man" Tierney, squirts villian Brandon Cane with his acidic bottles of ketchup.

"Spirit week is like a birthday party. You get really excited to have all this fun, but when it's over, you just can't wait for the next one."

-A. English '10

Prince Charming, Nick Brosky, sweeps Sophie Stilwell off of her feet.

Sarah Dupuie and Stephanie Blake show their "Saints" pride by wearing red and blue.



The Juniors use all of their arm strength while trying to get the win against the mighty seniors during the Homecoming Assembly.

By: Melanie Rhein

[007]

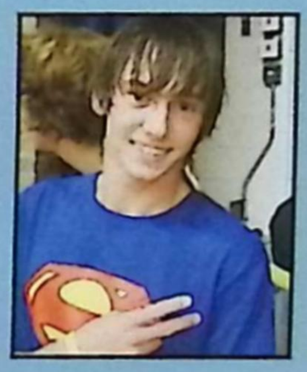
The dedicated Swim and Dive Team proudly show their support by holding up signs during the Homecoming Parade.

If you had the chance to have any super power, what would you choose?



"To fly so I don't have to pay $4 for a gallon of gas..and there would be no traffic."

-J. McClure '08

"I would want the power to get endless amounts of money so I could get everything I want."

-D. Schutz '09

"The power to stop time, so when I'm in school, I can sleep."

-S. Zohr '10

"I would like to be able to read people's minds to tell what they are thinking"

The 2007 Homecoming Court gets together for a picture after the traditional court dance.

By: Jayme McWain

Tori Kern, Erica Schuh, Angela Bluhm, Katie Swanic, Ayesha Ali, Holly Bielecki, Jamie McCormick and Kelly Etz show off their cute homecoming look at the boardwalk.

What was the best part of your homecoming experience?

"Everything from getting dressed up to dancing all night. After the dance was really fun too."

-E. Stirling '08

"For me it was dancing with all of my friends because that is always really fun"

-A. Currier '10

"The DJ was really good; the screen with all the pictures on it was pretty sweet."

ASSESSED (RESULTED) BOOK

By Amber Dabelstein

[027]

Here at SCHS there is more to classes than bookwork and tests. Teachers prepare a variety of activities, projects, and presentations to keep the students engaged in the material under study. For the first time ever we divided the academics section in to what we actually do, even goofing around. Each page displays a specific learning technique that teachers use to assist the students in retaining vital information. The techniques range from tests and notes to games and field trips. Students juggle a heavy workweek with homework, projects and assignments to complete along with their many other extra curricular activities. Along with all the work in the classroom, academics require several hours of work outside the classroom which is included on the after hours page. Some students prefer the method of note taking while other students benefit from the hands on activities such as labs. Ultimately, when it comes to academics, both students and staff at SCHS take academics to a whole new level.

By: Alexandra Bernardi

From early mornings to late nights...whether its during setting up or cleaning up... you can always find a St. Clair student working hard for their organization. No one can lead the school body quite like the Student Council, National Honor Society, Business Professionals of America, Natural Helpers, or the Theater Troupe. Not even a weekend or holiday can stop these organizations from always managing to bring success and dedication to everything they do. While preparing for events such as homecoming or prom, selling cookies at the school store, or the Red Cross blood drive, not a minute goes by without a stride for perfection. When looking back on your high school years, you rarely remember the homework or test; it's all about the social experiences, and without our organizations here at SCHS... many things just wouldn't be the same.

2008 Theater Troupe

Behind the Curtains, Behind the Scenes

This year in theater has been an exciting one. From missed cues to standing ovations, this year has had a full spectrum of talent and experiences. The opening performances for this year were "I Never Saw Another Butterfly" and "The Effects of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds." Both were performed with a relatively small cast, also "Marigolds" was a cast of all females. The next play was "Still Life With Iris", an award winning childrens play that involved magic and characters such as Mozart and Annabel Lee. The magic was taught to the actors by the magician that created the play and acted in the Seattle Washington Childrens Theater's version. Next, "Crazy For You", was the musicale this year and was a smash hit. A Gershwin musical that had catchy tunes like "I've Got Ryhthm" and "Embraceable You." The Production following the musical was a comedy by William Shakespeare, "Comedy of Errors." A play full of mistaken identity, and comical farce about two brothers separated at birth. The last productions were student directed plays. It was full of upcoming talent and remarkable directing and vision, not to mention our very own play writes. This year has been filled with oscar winning performances and emotional joy rides no one is soon to forget.

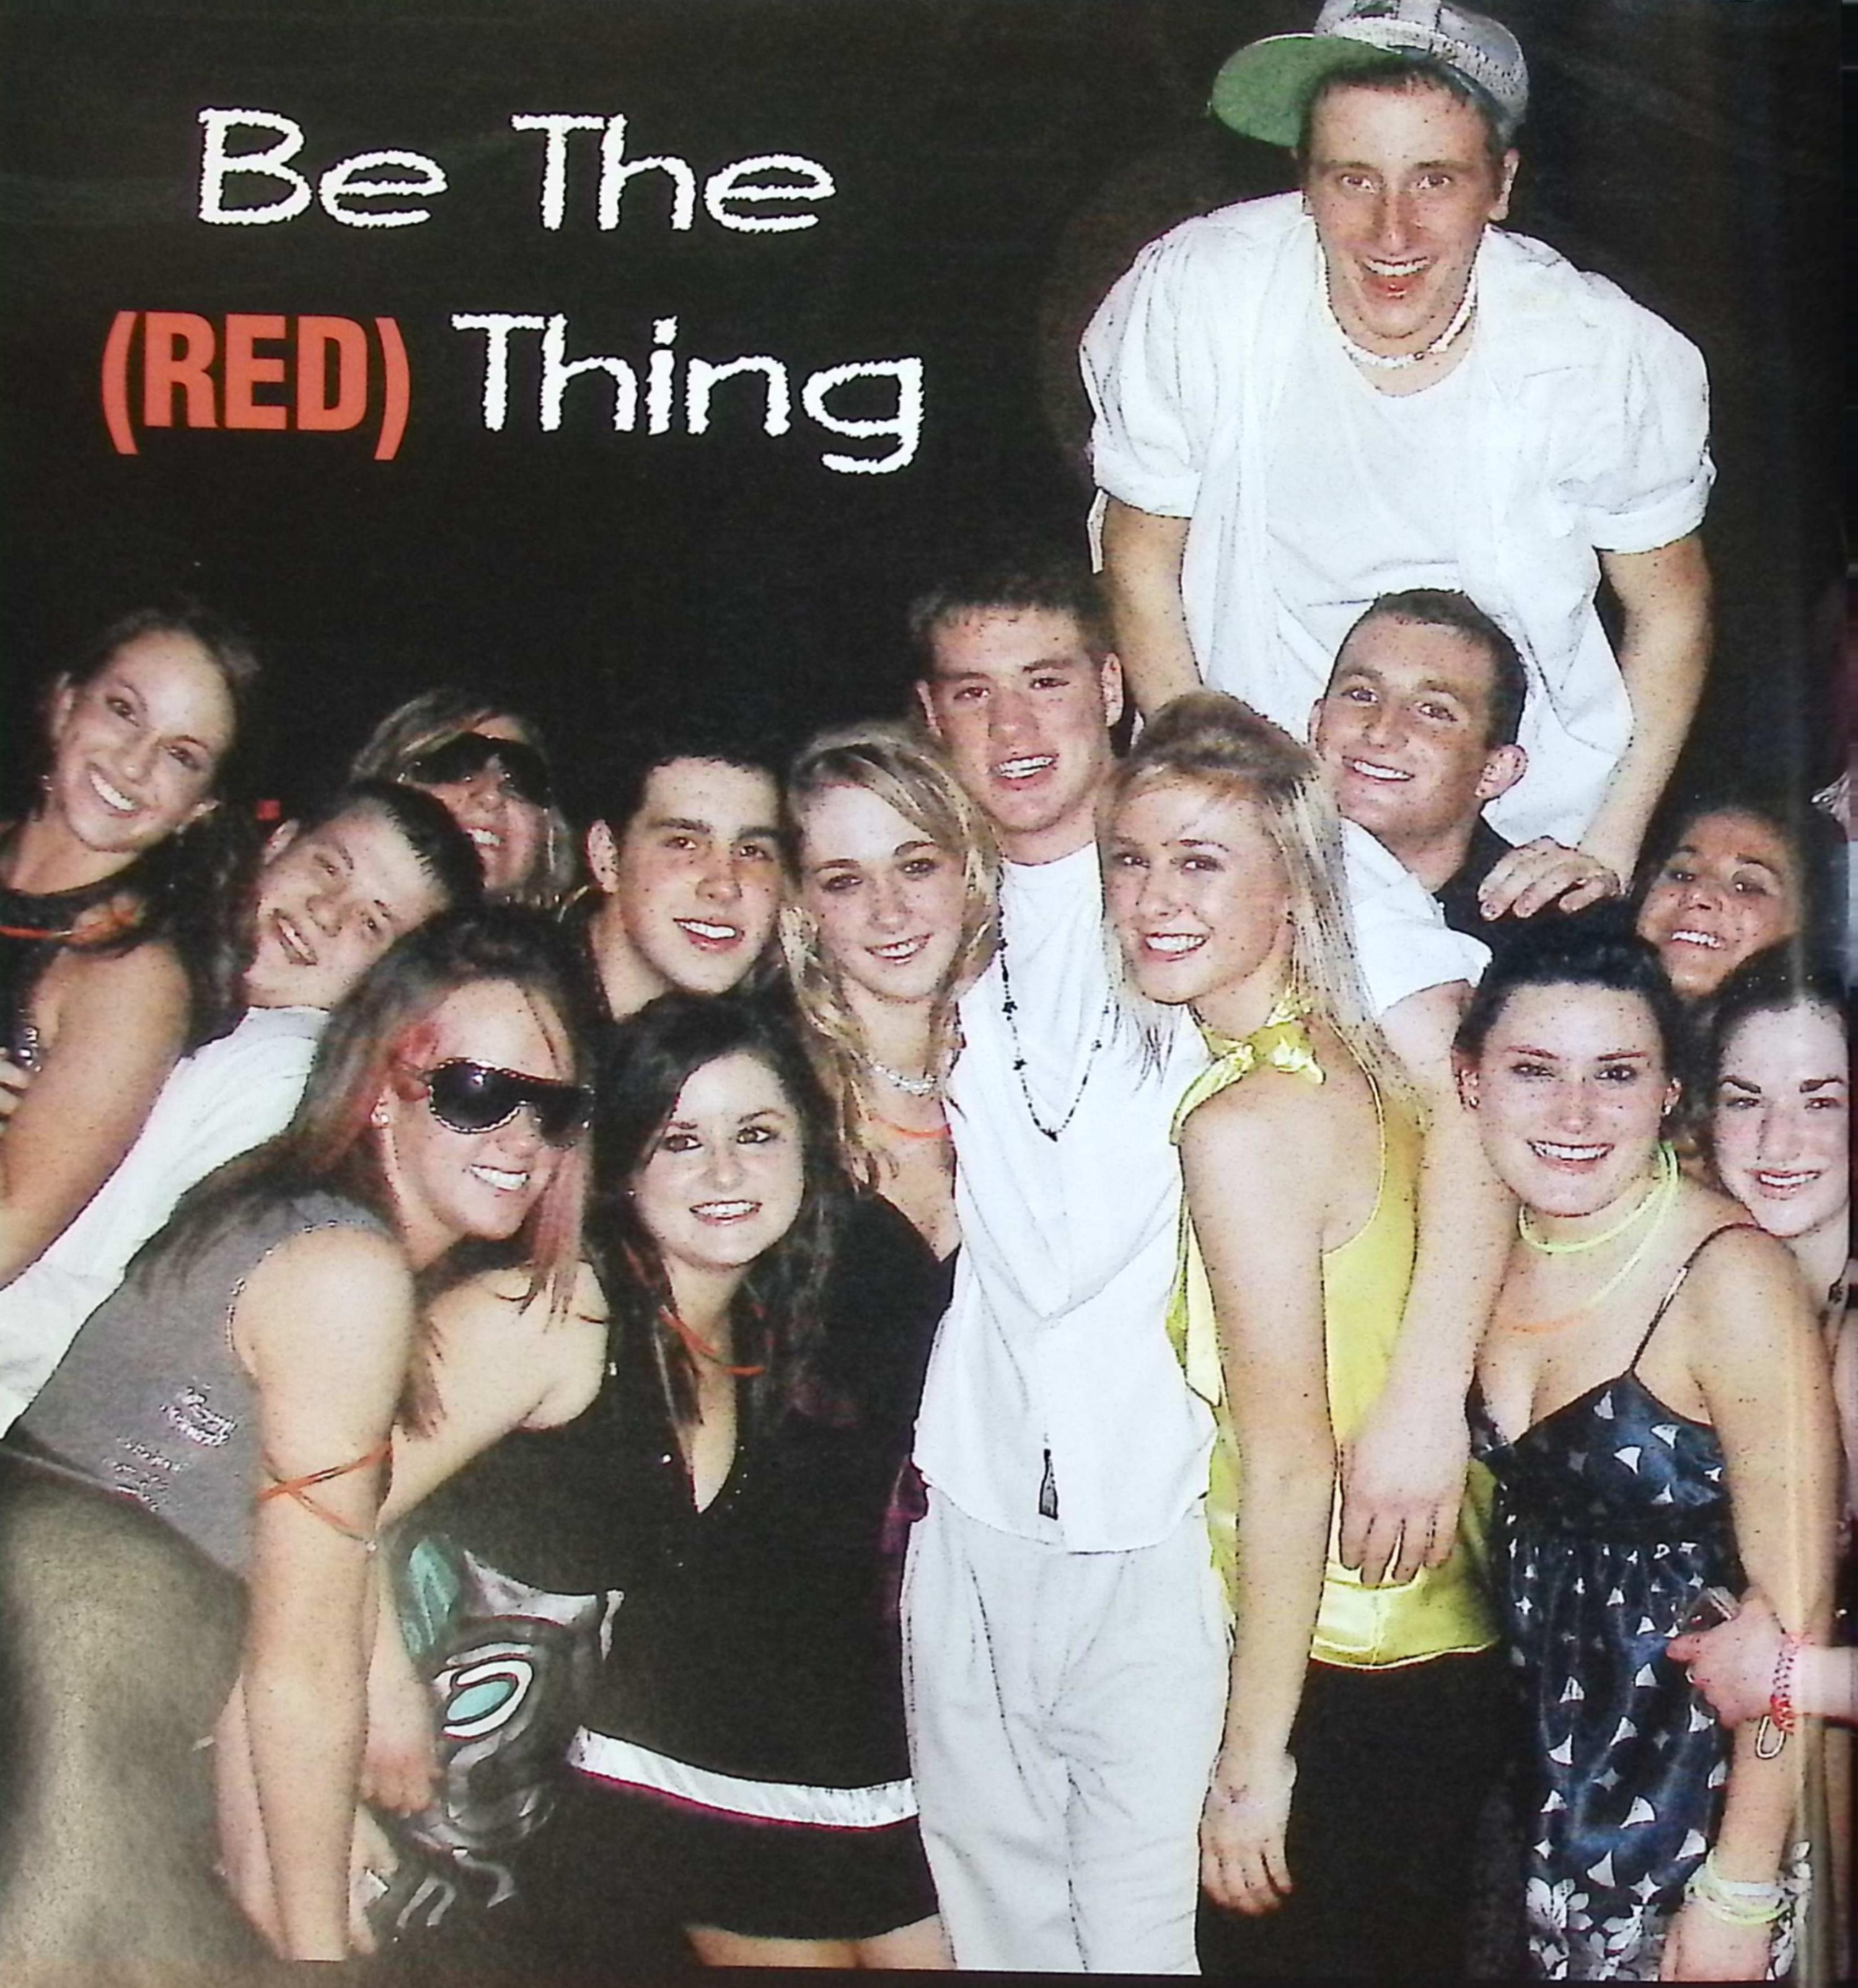
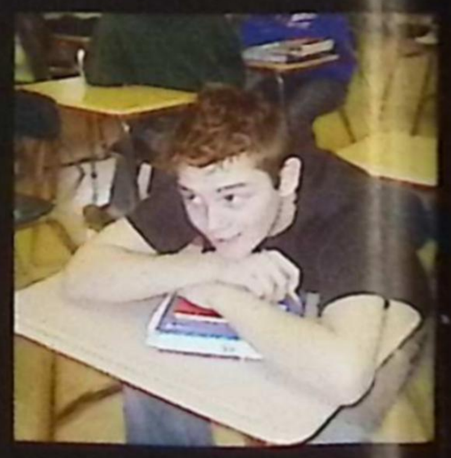
Be The (RED) Thing

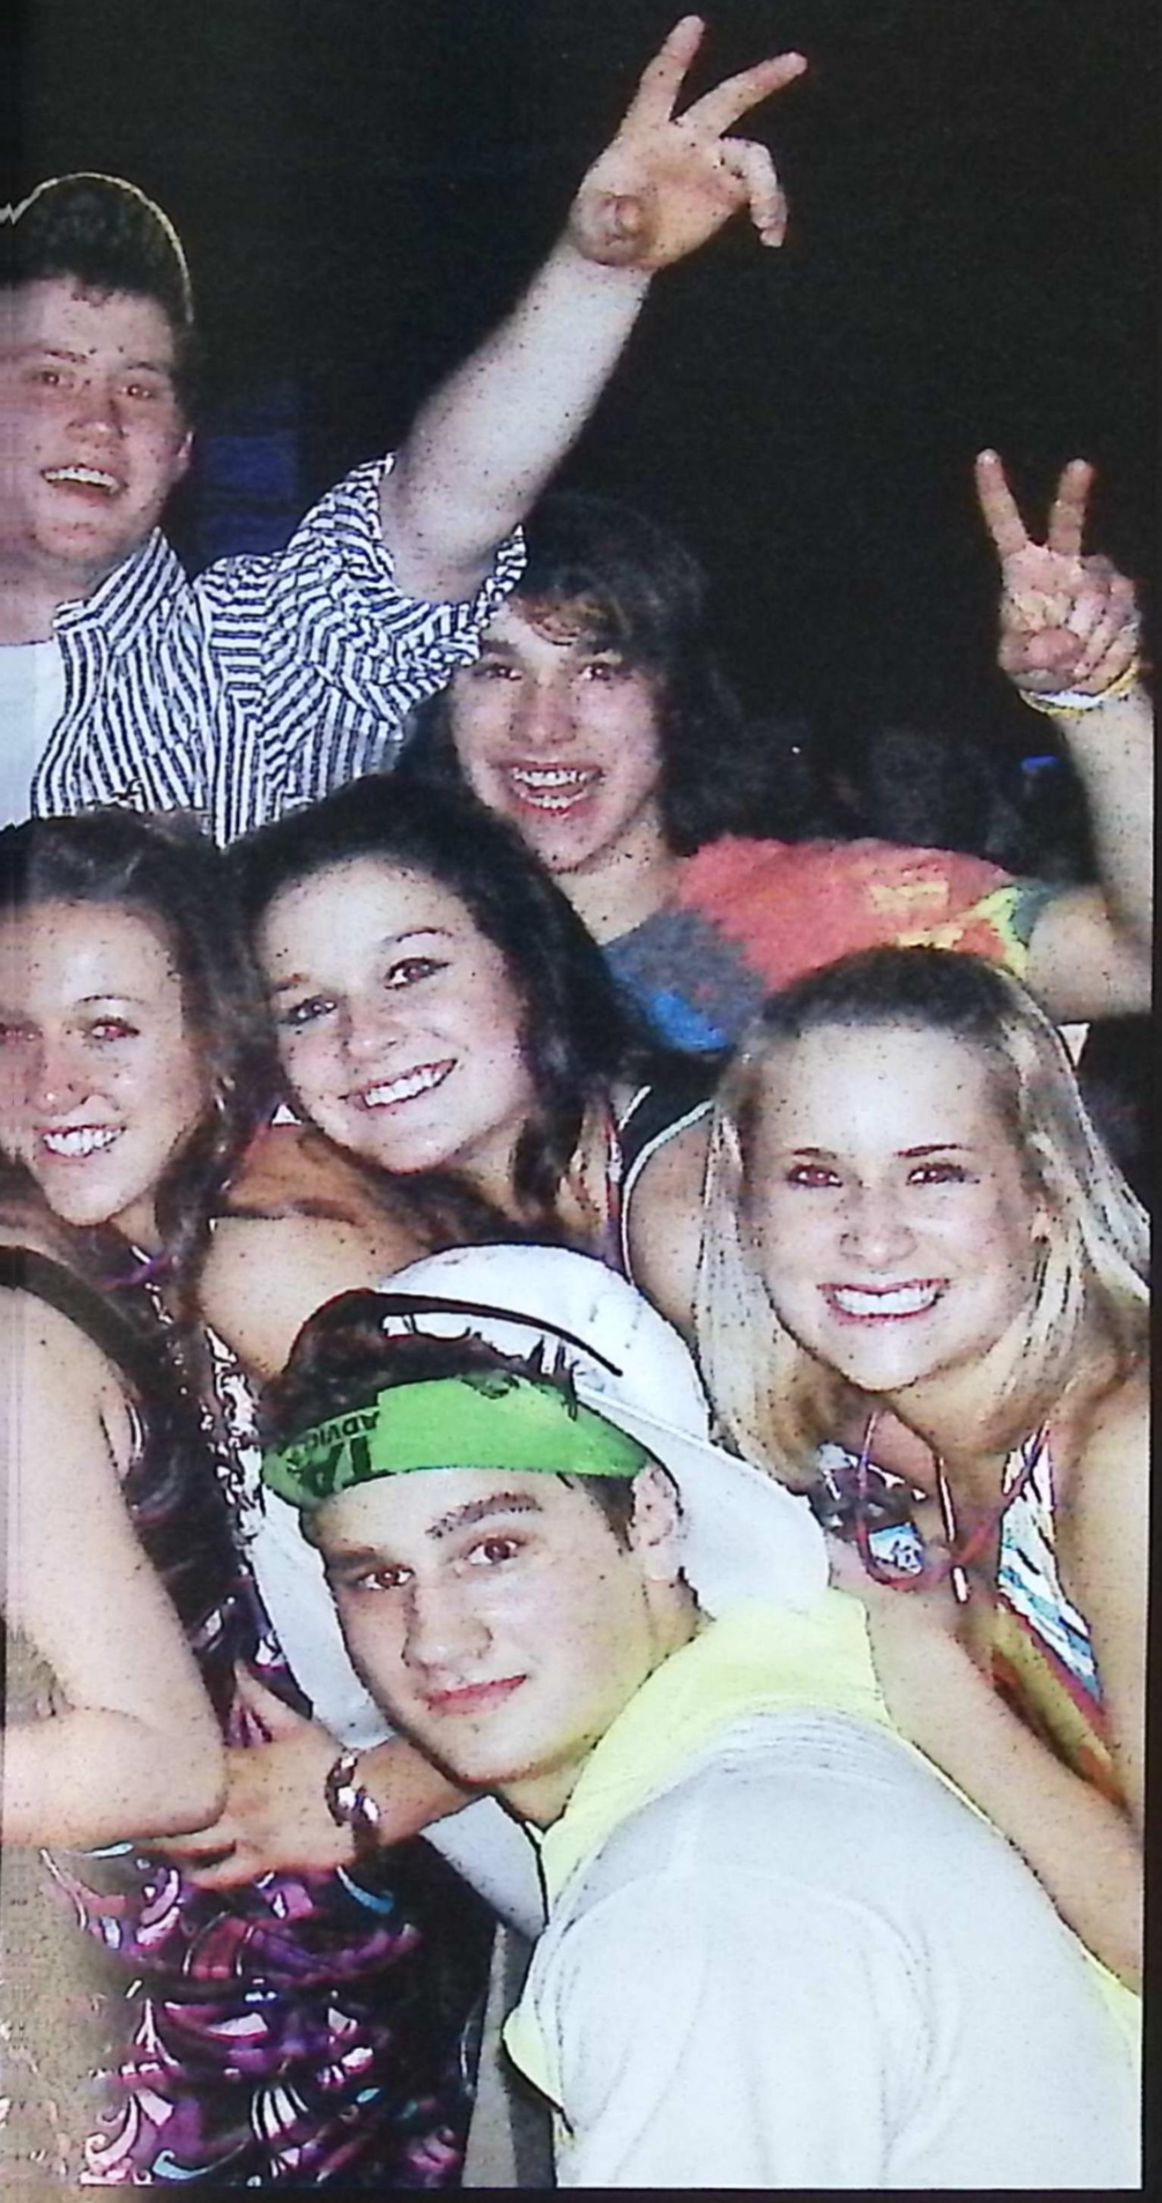




Seniors

By: Allie Bondy

08



After 4 years of high school drama and really growing up the class of 2008 is about to enter the real world. Senior year is about preparing for the world beyond high school. They spend much of their time applying to multiple colleges, taking one last ACT, applying for scholarships and thinking about the future. Although senior year is a very serious part of the high school timeline, it also has a much less serious side. Senior year is about making the most of high school. This is the last year of some of the best years of our lives. We have grown up with each other and now we are finally moving on with each other. As seniors we now have nothing to lose. We all know that this is the end of our childhood before we all move on to bigger and better things. That is why this year is about making moments to remember. Make the best of your last prom and never stop dancing. Make it a basketball game to remember by scoring the winning basket. Make your last band concert one that will never be forgotten.

Remember the laughs.

Remember the tears.

Remember the good times.

Remember the lessons you have learned.

Remember the Saints.

Remember means never to forget.

Deserve to be REMEMBE(RED).

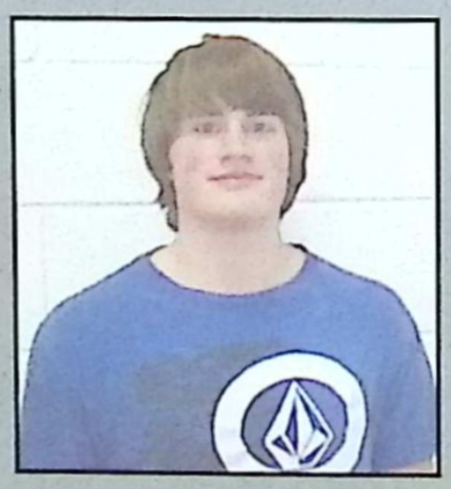
Senioritis: A crippling disease that strikes high school seniors. Symptoms include: laziness, a lack of studying, repeated absences, and a generally dismissive attitude. Also features an over-excess wearing of sweatpants, athletic shorts, and sweatshirts. The only known cure is a phenomenon known as GRADUATION.

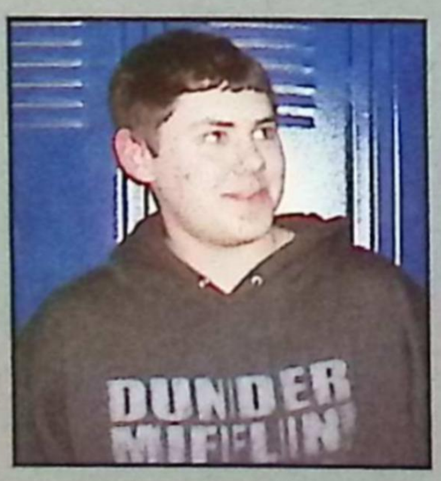
"It exists, but I do not have it. I really want to do a good job in my extracuriculars. I still want to get good grades and finish out the year as I would any other."

- M. Ryall '08



"Senioritis exists, but I'm not sure it should be called that. I've had senioritis since sophomore year, and I'm definitely not the only one."

- S. Langell '08



"Senioritis is just another word for laziness, but now that we are seniors, we have an excuse for it. I have had senioritis for as long as I can remember!"

- J. Thompson '08

"Senioritis definitely exists for me. I was infected in the middle of the summer and it has only gotten worse as the year has gone on."

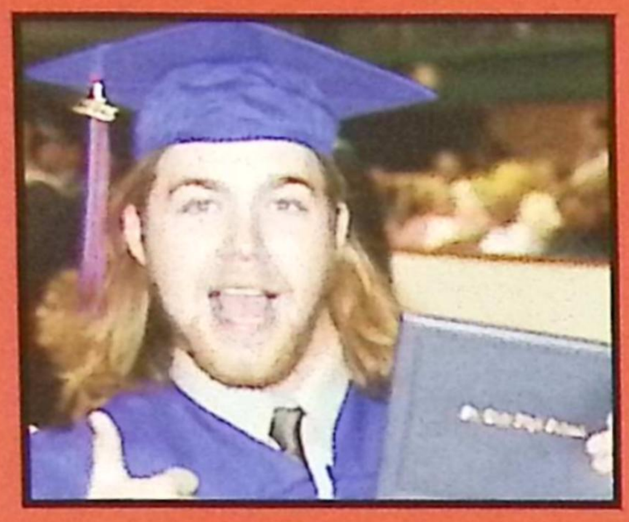
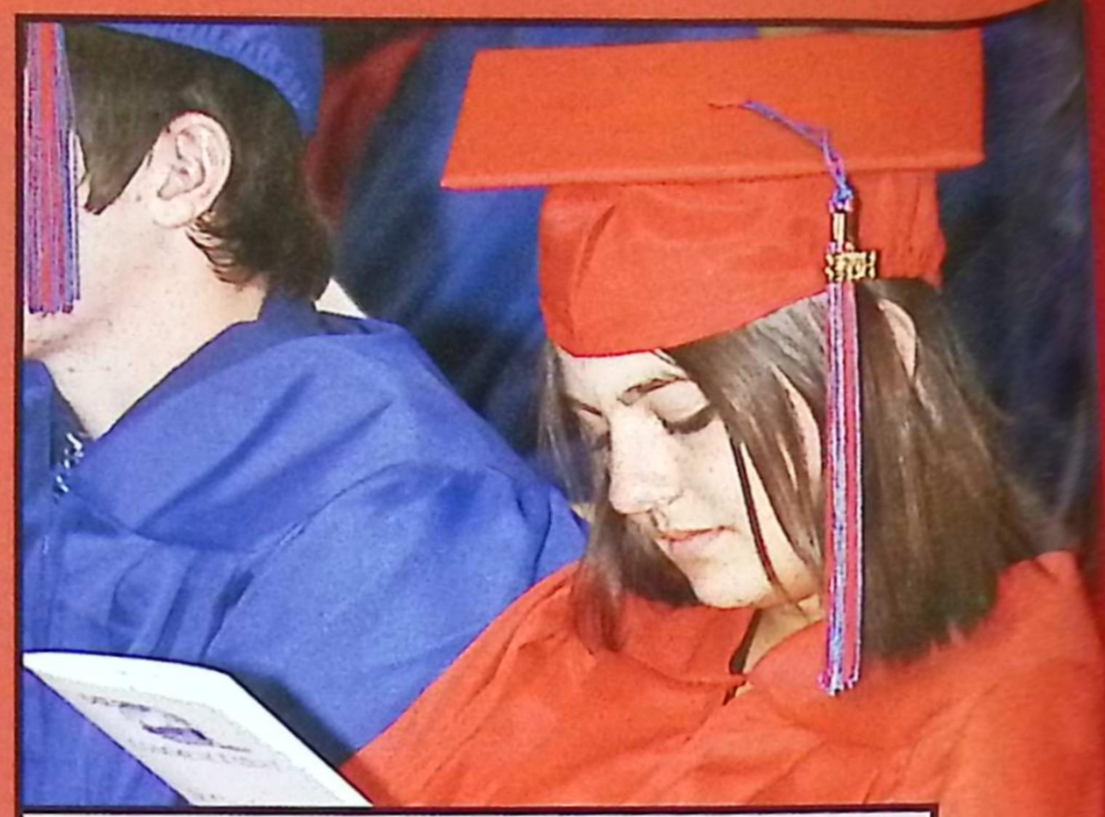
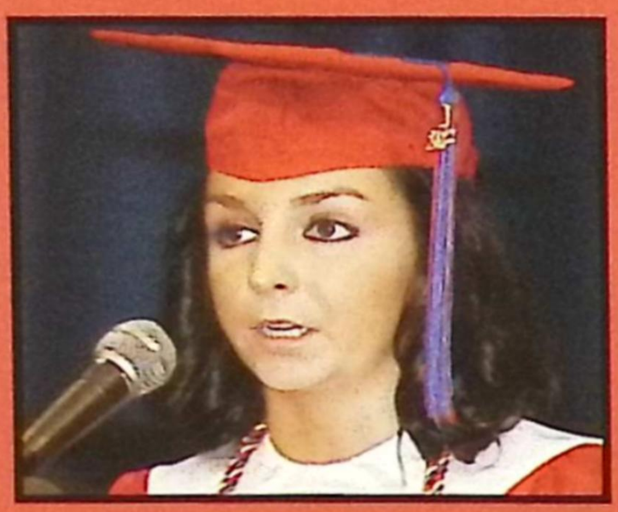
Graduation CEREMONY



At commencement practice, Amanda Day and Amanda Stuban know its not all serious.



Abigail Achatz reads through the names of her graduating friends in the program.



"My advice to you all for the future is to spend less time getting what you want and more time enjoying what you have."

– Mr. Miller

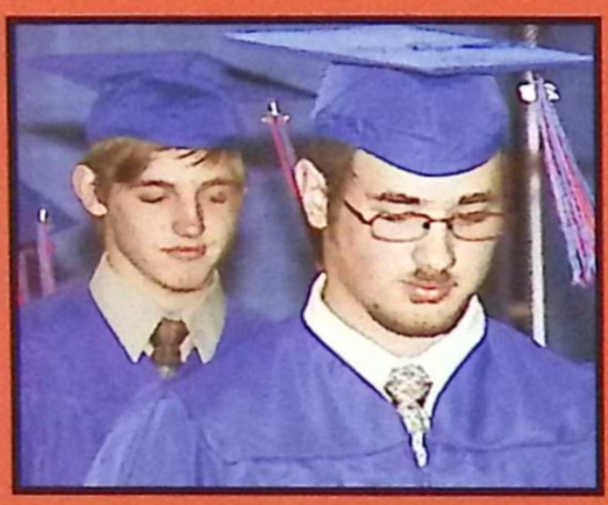
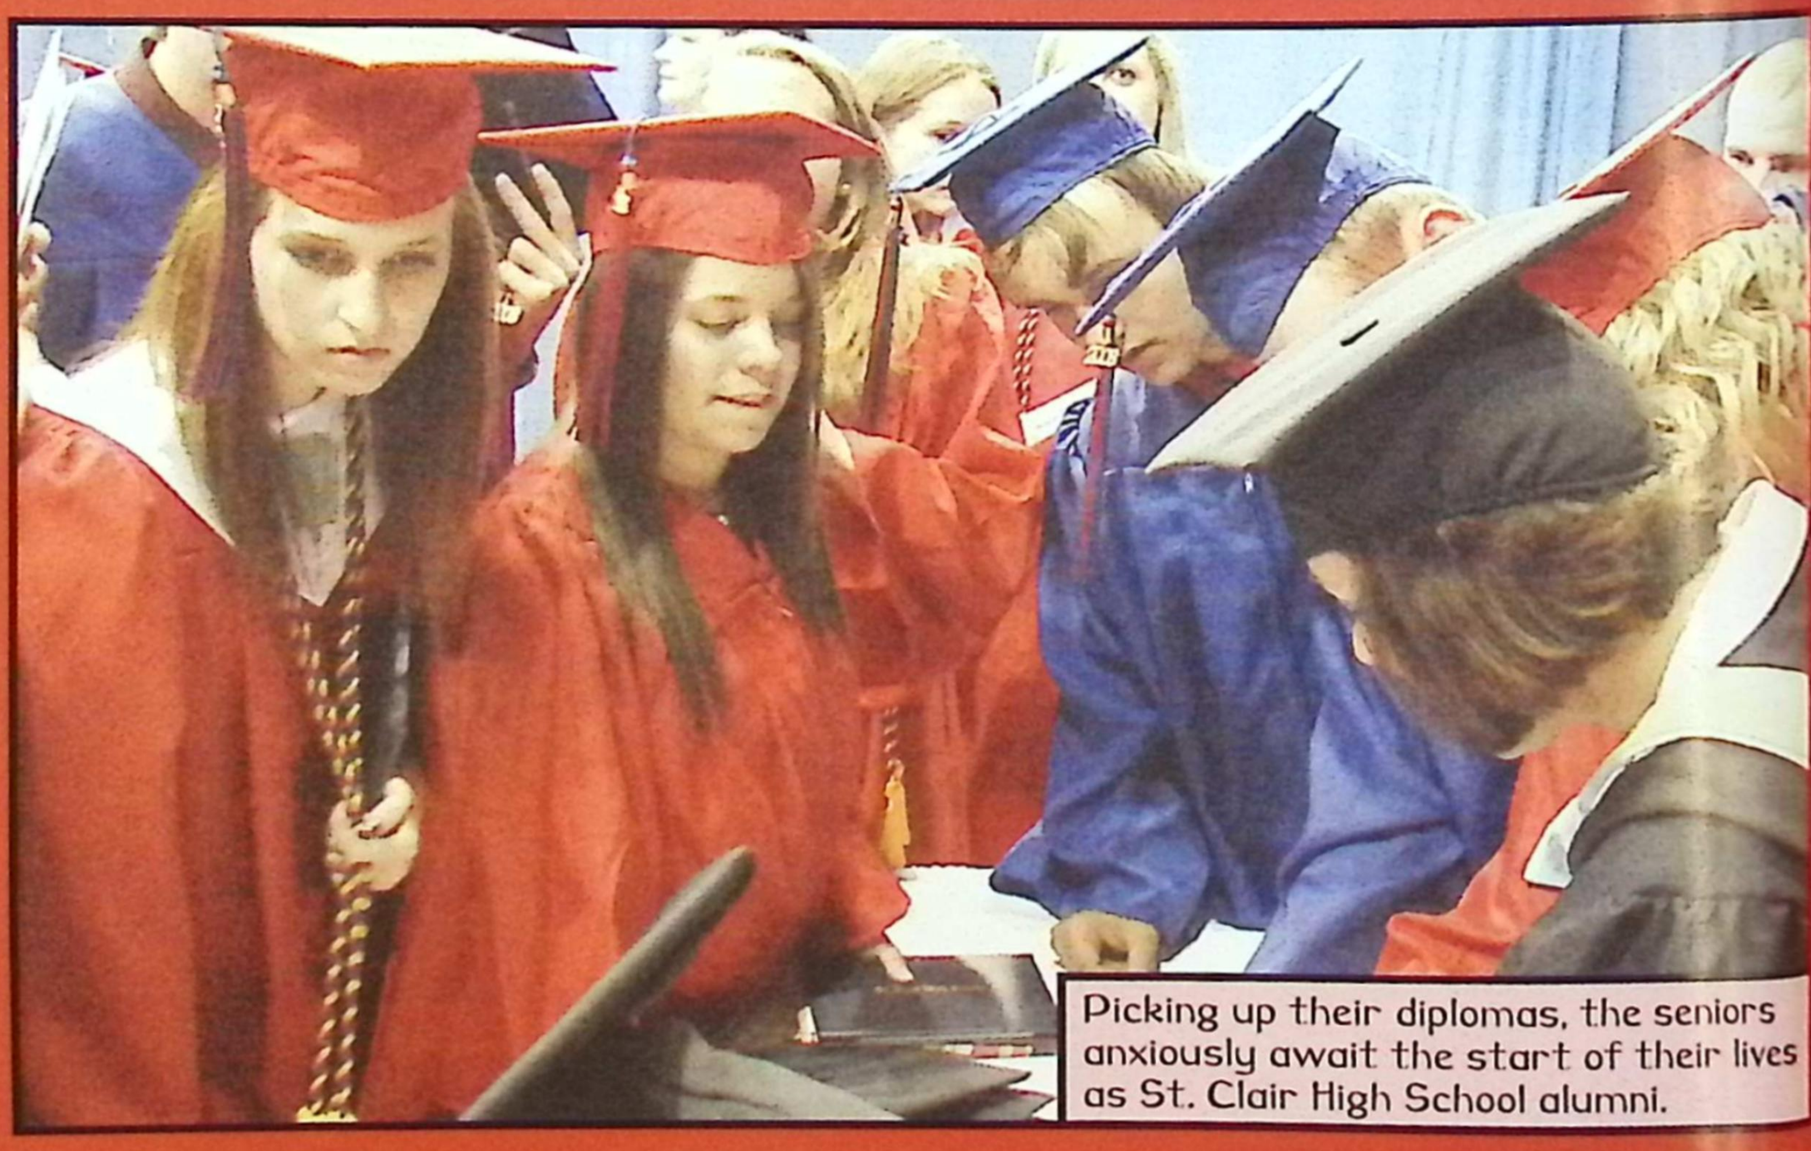
Andrew Gizowski, Dustin Glaza and Mike Goforth listen to the speeches.





Picking up their diplomas, the seniors anxiously await the start of their lives as St. Clair High School alumni.

By: Melanie Rhein

During the graduation ceremony, trombone players Callan Eschenburg, Alex Scott and Ryan Shafer play their hearts out at their last band performance.

High School has come and gone....What is one thing to suggest to underclassmen to do before graduation?

"As cliche or lame as it sounds, take a few moments each day to absorb everything around you and just enjoy it."

- J. Haas '08

"Before you graduate, you should most definitely break the rules and live a little. Push it to the limit!"

- J. Lickins '08

"Live every moment as it comes and don't just wait for the end because it comes way too fast and then you realize all you have missed."

- S. Faucher '08

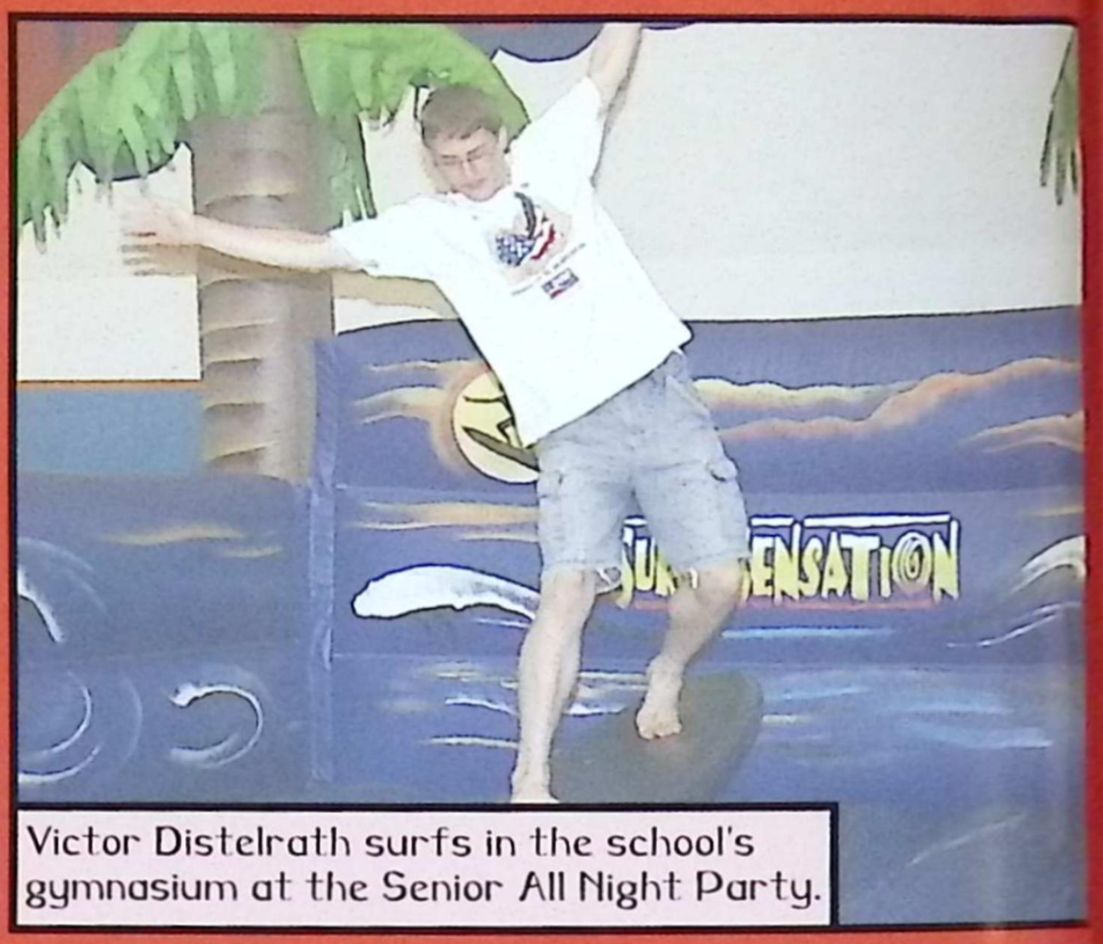
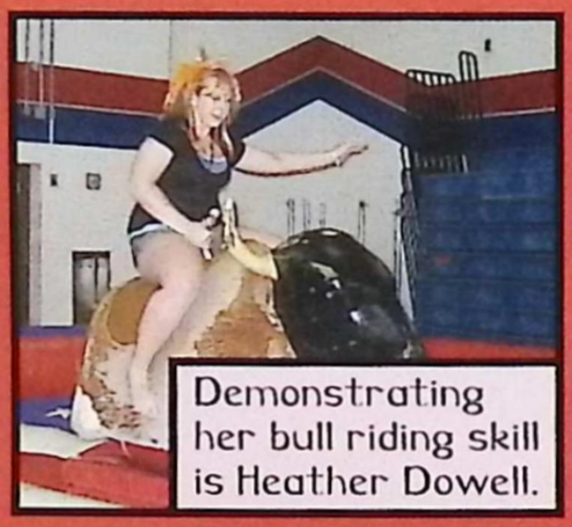
Allie Bondy, Emily Farina, and Chelsea Stefanides show off their new colorful hair-dos.



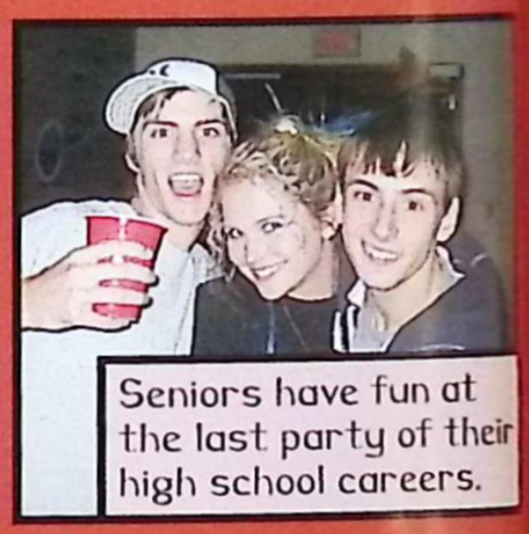
Victor Distelrath surfs in the school's gymnasium at the Senior All Night Party.

"When Luke Lanzi was hypnotized and dancing like a ballerina. That was the best part of the Senior All Night Party."

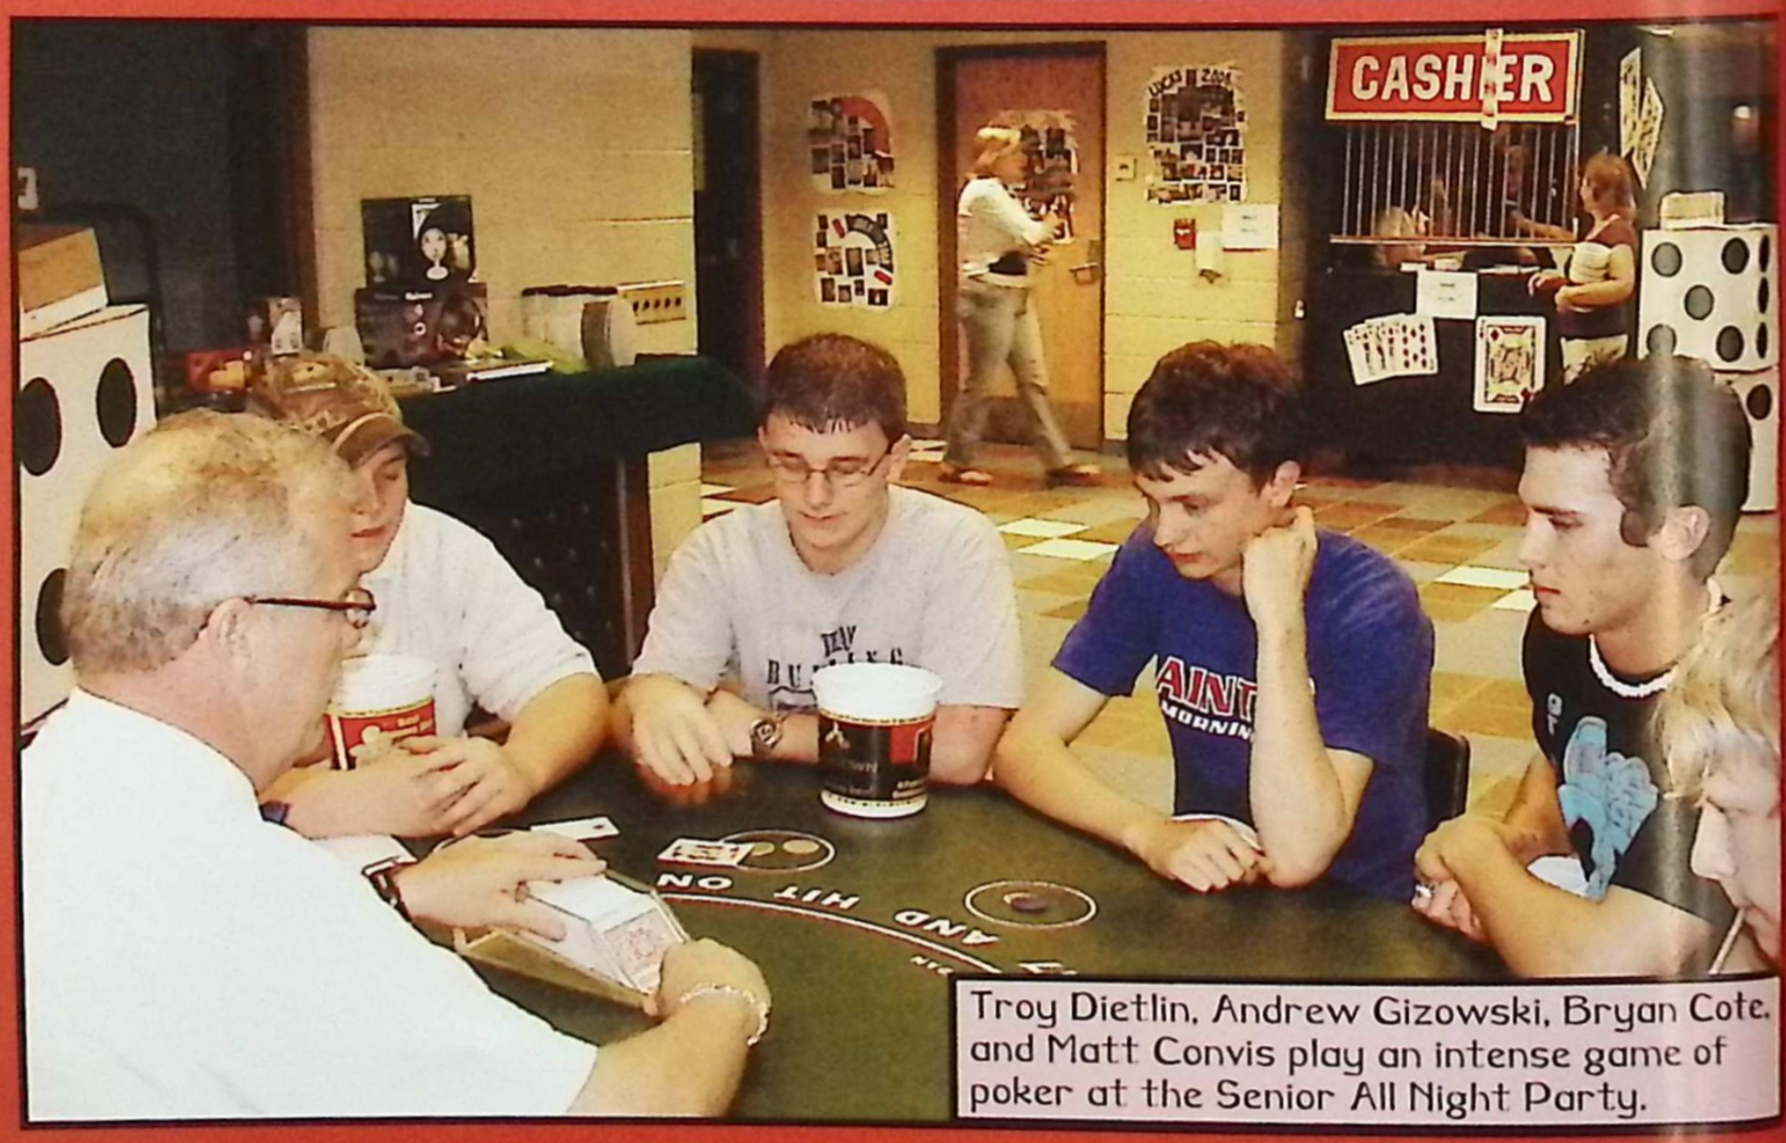
– L. Trujillo '08



Demonstrating her bull riding skill is Heather Dowell.



Seniors have fun at the last party of their high school careers.



Troy Dietlin, Andrew Gizowski, Bryan Cote, and Matt Convis play an intense game of poker at the Senior All Night Party.

Senior's Season Finale

A lot of hard work goes into the development and unfolding of the Senior All Night Party. There are six board members that plan and attend 8 meetings throughout the year. To help raise money, they also organized two different raffle fundraisers. Probably one of the most difficult tasks the group faces is trying to get the seniors excited about the party. They attempt to spark their interest by giving out gifts that hint towards the theme of the big celebration.

The Senior All Night Party begins at 9:00 p.m. on the day of graduation and lasts until 4:00 a.m. This is the last chance for many of the seniors to hang out and have fun together. In all of the classrooms, hall ways and even the gymnasium entertainment of some sort is happening.

Some of the favorite events included the hypnotist, psychic, and card tables. The seniors also enjoyed scuba diving in the pool, playing laser tag in the gym and all the slushies you could handle.

Nathan Kuhlman, Corey Yentz, Pat Keller, and Josh Collier dress up, dance and create a music video at the seniors party following graduation.

Jesse O'Brien and Levi Ekanger finally have the opportunity to have fun learning to scuba dive in the normally rule laden pool.

Saint Clair High School is not all about the classes, the homework and the Friday night games. It is about the people that help shape the student body to create what it is today. As the seniors enjoy their last year, the underclassmen follow in their footsteps; crossing off the boxes on their calendars until the day they too will become the "almighty" seniors. While the seniors struggle to get all their required credits completed, the underclassmen enjoy their time by spending it with close friends. Some go to their first prom while others show their support in the 6th Man Pit, cheering on their team. Underclassmen also get their taste of the beloved drivers training course to obtain their license in order to have that precious driving privilege. Throughout the year the underclassmen undergo ACT practice tests, the dreaded idea of taking the bus and the idea that high school is a matter of responsibility. Whatever the case may be, underclassmen are all connected and joined together.

If you're already late for class... then why do you run?

"Because there may be a chance that the teacher isn't in the room yet, so if I can make it there before they do then I'm 'technically' not late!"

- K. Smade '11

"Sometimes if a teacher is caught up or doing something, I can sneak in without them really noticing."

- E. Sweepy '11

"Mostly just because the faster you get there, the less trouble you will usually end up getting in."

Athletics

By: Jayme McWain

From the hard work and dedication in practice, to the game winning plays; St. Clair High is a school that is constantly striving for athletic excellence. At St. Clair High School, we run wild with red and blue pride. Our sports teams pump us up and put forth their most admirable effort and perseverance in order to achieve their goals and meet the high expectations set by their coaches, parents, fans and most importantly, themselves. Between those early morning practices, the boiling hot summer two-a-days and studying for that upcoming test, true athletes never back down. Being inspired by that last minute shot, crossing the finish line with a new personal record, or demonstrating honorable sportsmanship, these are the moments that every athlete lives for. Being part of an athletic team is more than just participating in sports. Sports at SCHS are a school and community-wide phenomenon. Each year the sports fans go crazy showing support for their favorite teams and players. In St. Clair there is no such thing as a fair weather fan; we are at that game win or lose, rain or shine, to show our Saints pride. Each team does their best to reach their highest potential whether it is going to a regional competition, winning states, or even something as simple as improving their skills. Determination, hard work and the will to win are the characteristics that make St. Clair student-athletes such positive role models to everyone in the community. Overall, after a long trying day of practice, the last game of the season, and the final moments spent with a team, it is all worth it. Saints, always let your red and blue spirit show.

Eddie Shore set an NHL record with 165 penalty minutes in his second season. His career was sprinkled with tales of broken bones and bloodied faces. So when asked for a common phrase heard among the hockey players, D. Paret was quick to answer with:

"Old Time Hockey... Like Eddie Shore."

The New, The Old

Paul MacLeod has been swimming for four years. He began swimming competitively as a freshman. Swimming comes very natural to him. Paul's favorite thing about swim is the feeling of accomplishment after winning a race, meet or even making it through a rough practice.

Billy Cedar has been swimming competively for one year. He got involved with swim after his sister, Emily, swam the previous season. Shortly after he became interested in breaststroke. Billy's favorite thing about swim is the people that he has been able to met. "All the people have been really nice and I've made a lot of new friends."

Making Saints' History

After completing the regular season with a record of 8-9, the Lady Saints Varsity Softball team turned their game around at the end of the regular season, heading into districts with plenty of confidence. Their first challenge came from Richmond in the pre-district game, battling throughout the entire game, the girls were able to pull out a win in the 9th inning. After making it past Richmond they were faced with rivals, Marine City. The game was delayed three times by the rain, but the team came out focused and finished Marine City's season in a very hard fought game. To end the day, the team was able to mercy Imlay City and win their well deserved crown. At last, they were named District Champs; the first time in girl's softball school history. Unfortunatey the team lost in the first game of regional play. However, making it that far was quite an accomplishment.

To Sum Up the Season...

The girls track and field team competed in the MAC Blue conference this year. The team struggled at times to place but they had their go to girls. In the distance events, Amy Hamilton led the 3200 meter runners with a time of 11:59. She also had a spot on the 3200 meter relay team along with Hanekow, Jebrael and Smade who broke the MAC Blue conference record and the school record, with a time of 10:12.4. The sprinting squad was usually lead by Brittney Melick who had an outstanding 100 meter sprint time. Along with that she participated in the 400 meter relay team with Heiden, Eisen and Rust; their best time was 53.8, making them a hard team to catch. The class of 2011 made an impact on this team...from the sprinting of Eisen to the distance times from Smade and Jebrael; Kayla Smade was named MVP for earning the most varsity points with 182. Next year the team plans to return with hopes of capturing the MAC Blue League Crown.

For the first time . . .

...in years Saint Clair High School has a junior varsity girls tennis team. The season changed as well, from fall to spring. This change caused numerous amounts of girls to join, making this team one of the largest in the district. Despite the large numbers, these girls learned to improve their serves, backhands, forehands, and volleys, with help from their coaches, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Clutts. With a successful year these girls hope to continue this tradition and watch the program grow.

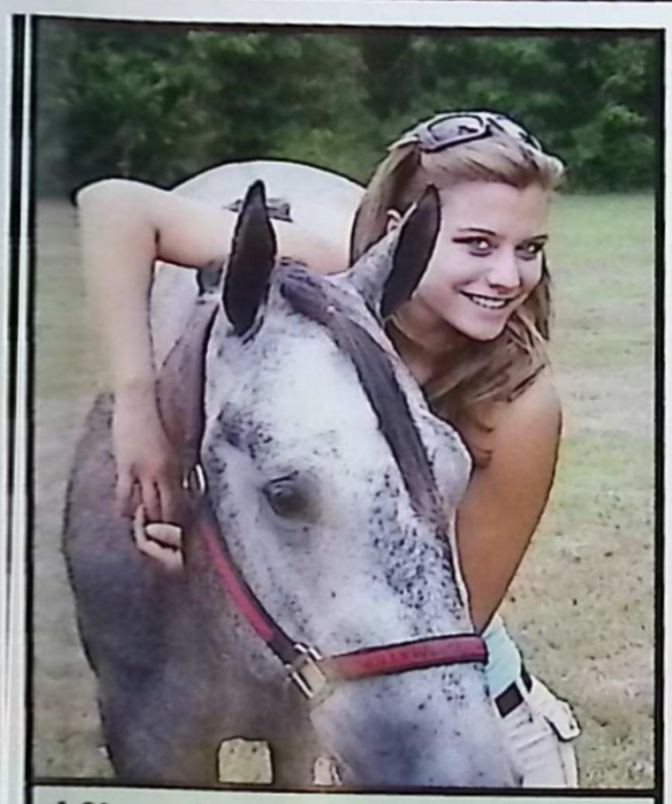
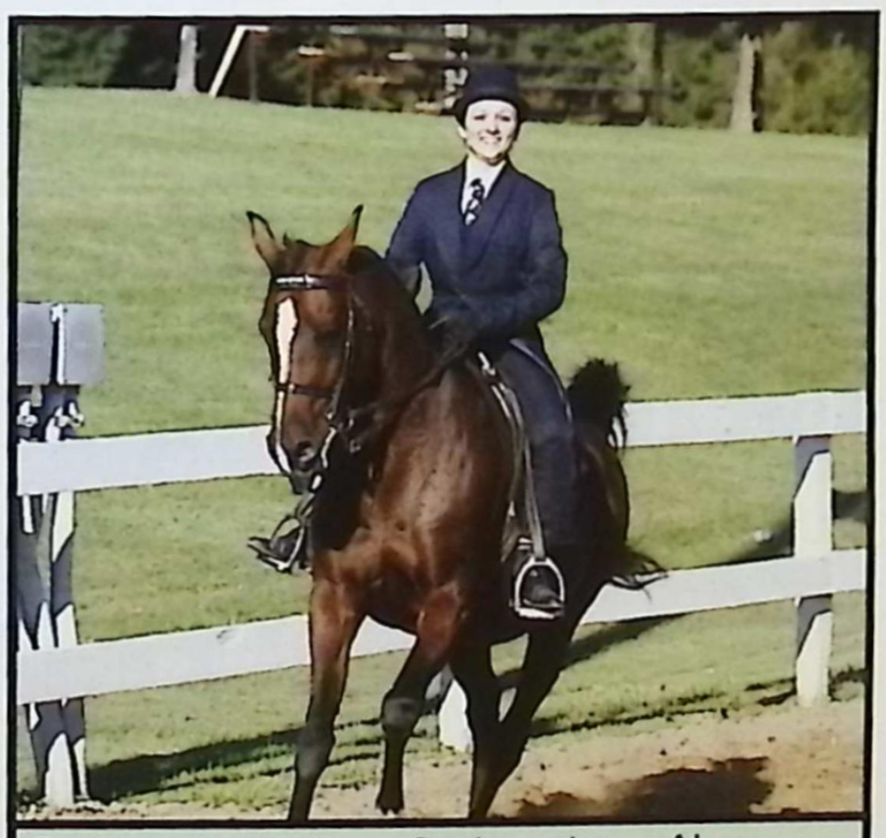
After a tough showing, Mackenzie Joachim is proud to display her awards.

Hoping to decrease her time, Amanda Wright takes swift turns around the barrel.



After a long day of showing, Melissa Rust relaxes with her horse, Breeze.



Sitting up with perfect posture, Alyssa Terzo performs her saddle seat equitation.

What is your favorite event?

"I like everything because each class helps me have a better relationship with my horse."

- C. Metheny '08

"Showing because it brings about my competitiveness and my passion for my horse."

- M. Joachim '11

"All, because I am able to ride with other horse lovers from this school."

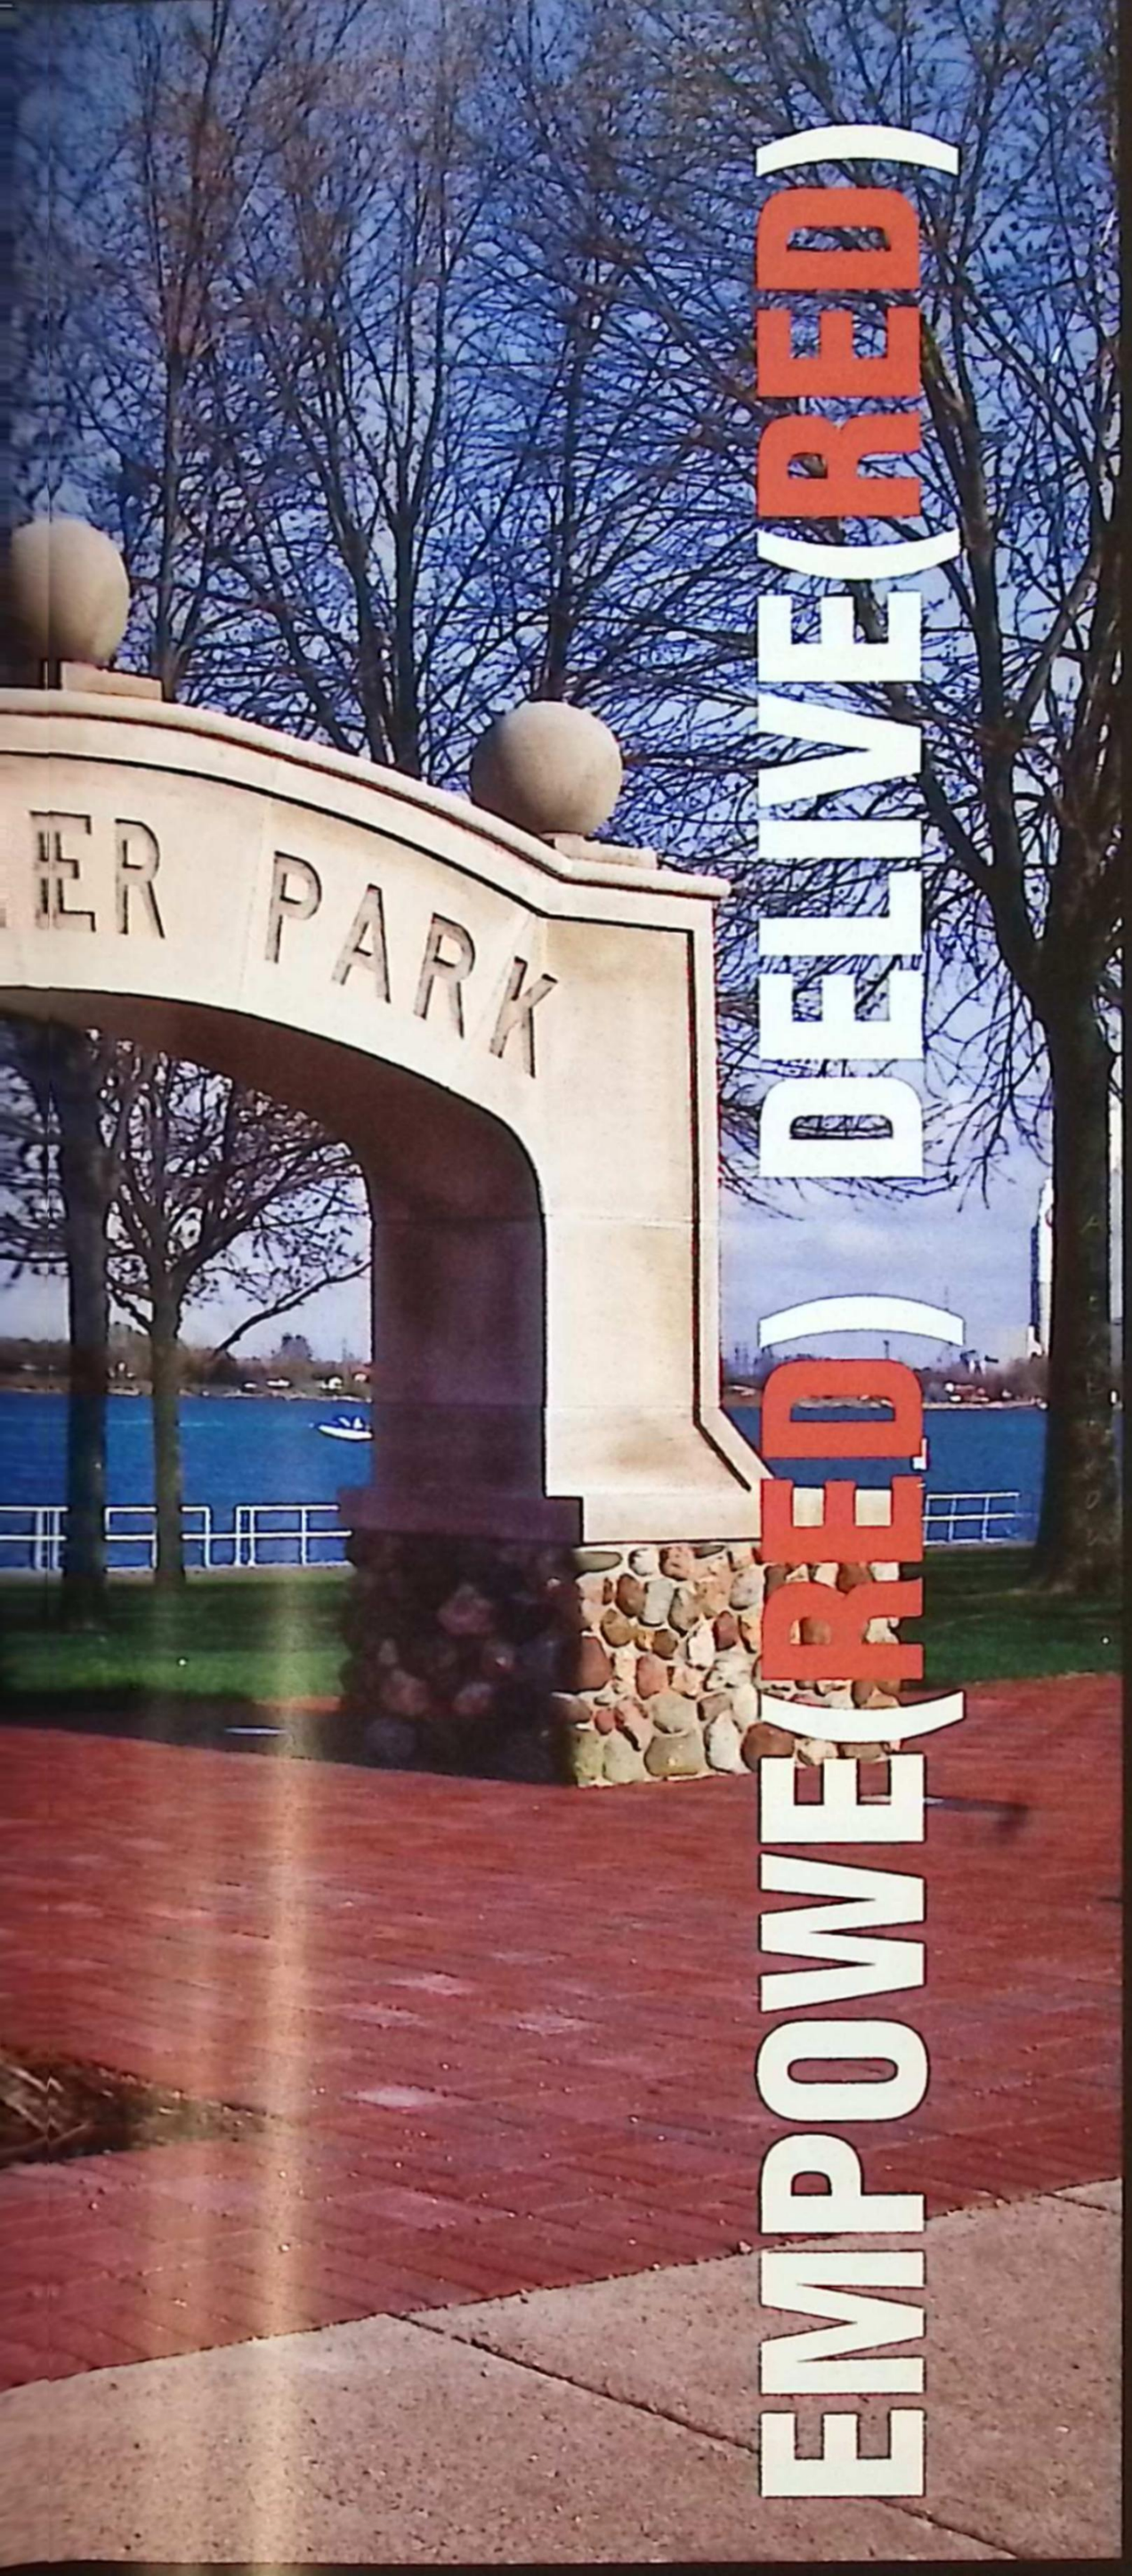
Community



By: Benda & Rhein

The unbelievable support from the entire community of St. Clair has helped to shape what students have accomplished throughout the years. Whether it's everyone coming together to cheer on teams from the stands or offering scholarships to our seniors, our community constantly encourages students to achieve success. The business community also affects the lives of students at SCHS by providing them with a variety of opportunities. It may be a restaurant, an ice cream shop or a bowling alley. Whatever the case, our business community is always there to help with a number of personal needs from hunger, to shopping, to the jobs that provide students with chances to earn money during the summer, or a place to hang out with friends. On the other hand, students also give back to the community with many activities like the Red Cross blood drives or fundraisers that help families in need. Whatever the situation might be, SCHS would not accomplish much without the contributions of the whole community.

Congratulations!

[Colleen Bryan]

Colleen,

As you continue on life's journey, face it not with fear, but with excitement and adventure. You have always been able to find joy and fun in all you do, let that positive attitude guide you always! You are smart, kind, friendly, and beautiful inside and out. Follow your heart and life will continue to be filled with love and happiness.

Love,
Mom

[Kristen Rood]

"Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined."

From the curly haired little girl to the young woman ready to take on the world... we are very proud of you! Good Luck at Michigan State!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kelsey, Erik and Alec

[Lindsey Trujillo]

"There are only two lasting bequests we can give our children... one is roots, the other wings."

Congratulations! We are proud of you and look forward to experiencing through your eyes the next several years of college, growth and what life holds ahead of you!

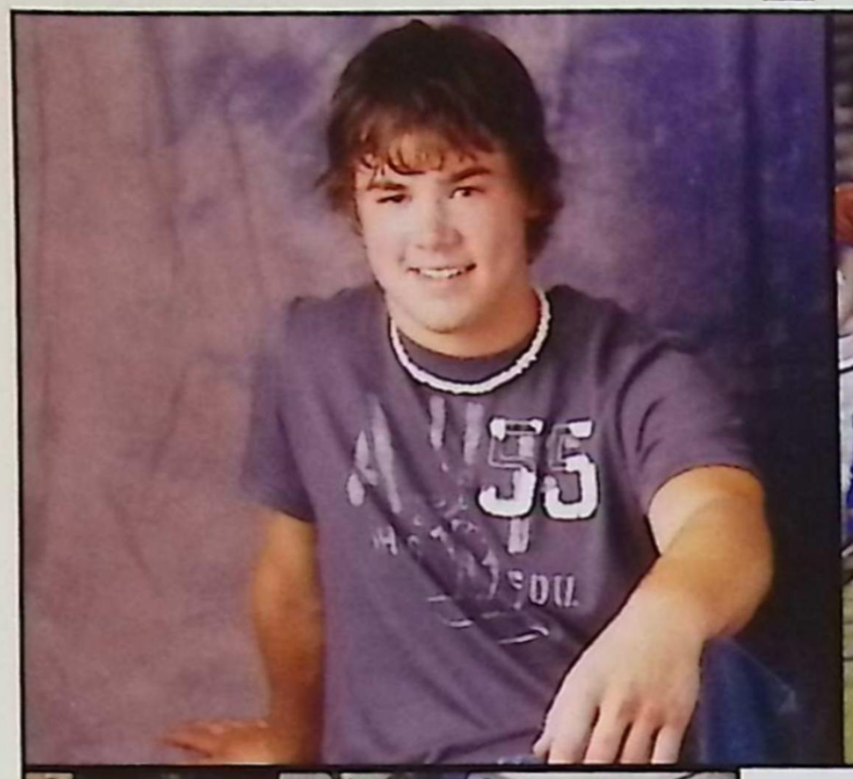
You have brought great joy and laughter into our lives. You have given us memories that we will treasure forever. We are proud of all your accomplishments and admire the caring young woman you have become. Follow your dreams, live each day to the fullest, and may you have a lifetime of happiness.

Love,

Dad, Mom, and Brent

[Travis Castle]



Travis,
It has indeed been a pleasure to watch you grow into a fine young man. The future holds great things for you! Keep an open mind and remember:
Faith, Family, Friends, Fun!

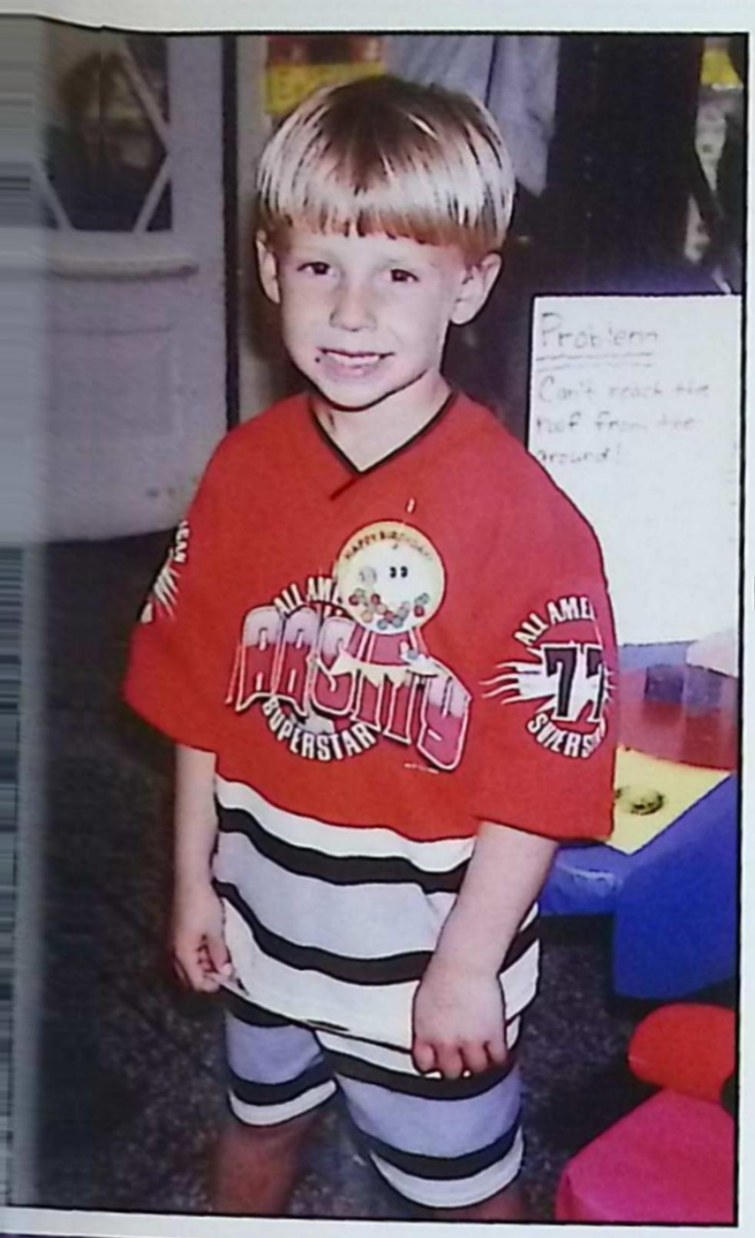
[Andrew Carrell]



Drew,
From day one you have been someone who knows what he wants and is not influenced by what others are thinking or doing. We hope you continue to have that attitude and never sell yourself short. We are so proud of ALL your accomplishments through out your school years. You have accomplished so much in both academics and sports. Always keep that competitive edge. It has been so fun watching you compete in hockey and baseball!

Thanks for the memories Drew Man!!
Love you MORE!
Mom, Dad, Michael, and Jeremy

[Andrew Gizowski]

Andrew,
We were amazed and blessed the day you were born. Time has passed so fast, from your first step to riding your first bike; what a loving and caring big brother you are. You have grown into a remarkable young man. You have made us so proud. Keep running like the wind and reaching for your dreams. Enjoy your new adventures at LCC and always remember... Mommy is just a phone call away.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Greg and Adam

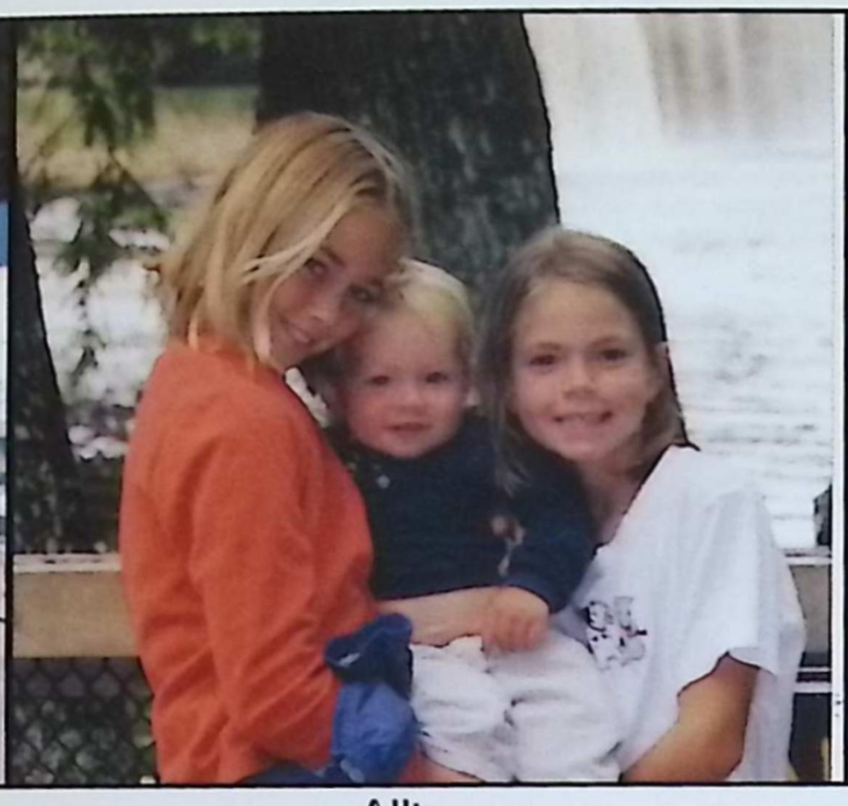
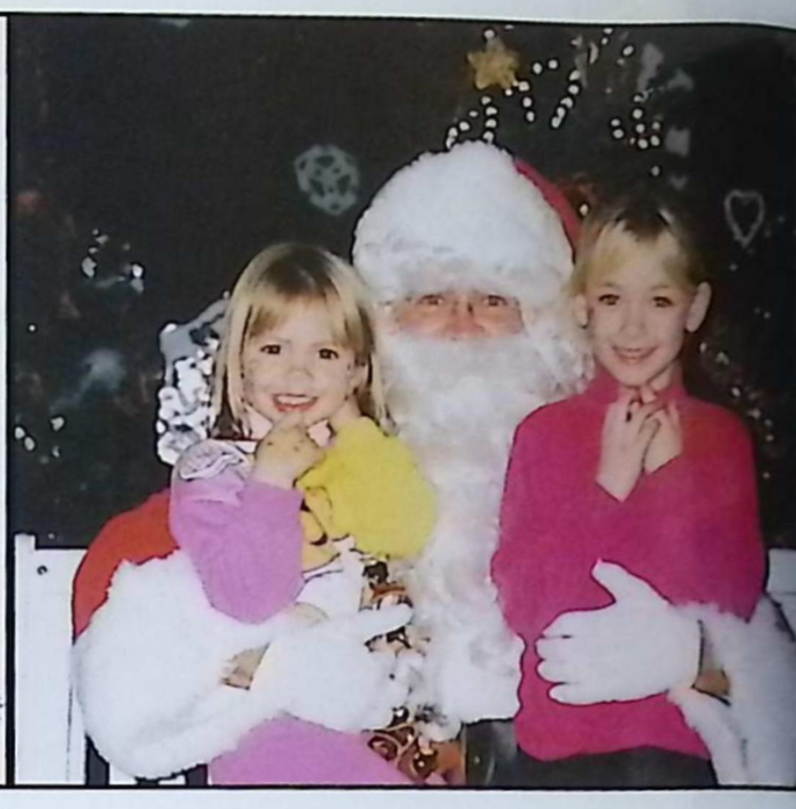
[Allie Bondy]

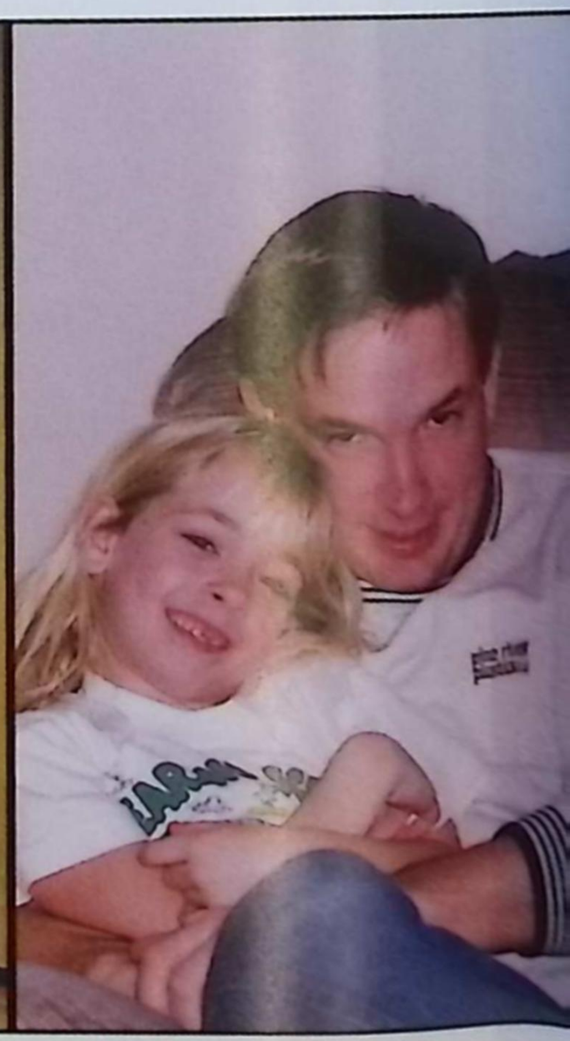




Allie,

It is hard to believe that our first born is graduating. It seems like only yesterday we were at the hospital bringing you into this world. Though our memories may be fading, we can still recall every detail of that day, undeniably one of the greatest moments in our lives. You have made us so proud throughout the years with your academic successes and athletic endeavors. And now you are 18 and heading off to college in the fall. We have no doubt that you will succeed in every way. And continue to make the 'smart choices' that you always have (well, usually have). All kidding aside, we could not be more proud of the beautiful young woman you have become. And we want you to know that you will always be... in the top three.

We love you, Mom and Dad



[Megan Johnson]

[209]

Meg,

Wooow, we are so proud of you. It's so cool seeing the bits of life- the compassion, strength, and drive you have chosen, and incorporated in your awesome spirit. (Good genes help too.) Thanks for keeping life interesting. We are so excited waiting to see the next chapter of your life and how you choose to write it. Always remember it's the journey so much more so than the destination- LIVE LIFE WITH A PURPOSE- YOUR PURPOSE.

Congrats- Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Tay, Jord, and Ryan

David,

You are everything that we hoped for and more. We are so thankful that you came first to help us grow into parenthood as you grew into adulthood. You have earned the admiration of your brothers and the trust and respect of your parents by the man you are. Go now and discover the greatness that awaits those who well use their talent and effort. We are your touchstone. You are our inspiration.

We love you always,

Dear Bobby,

These past 18 years have gone by so fast. You have brought us so much joy. You have become a wonderful young man, and we are so proud to have you as our son. You have what it takes to achieve your goals in life. Your personality, your good work ethics and your great smile will take you far. Believe in yourself, never give up, keep God in your heart, and remember we are always here for you!

May all your dreams come true.
And always, always

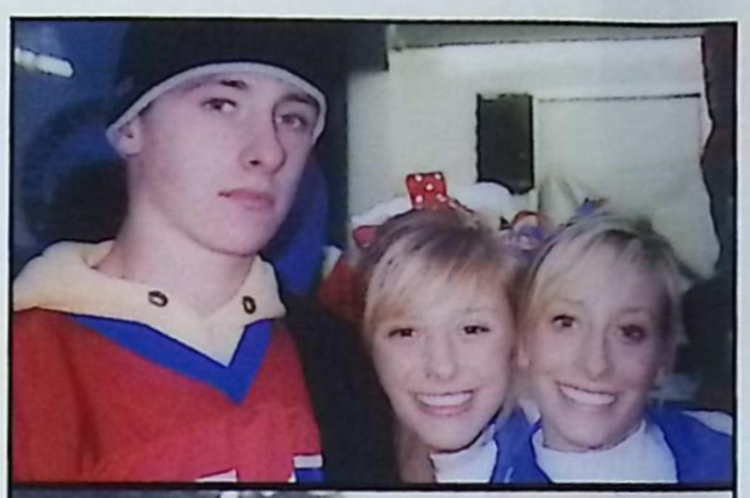
Chadd & Chelsea Stefanides

Chadd and Chelsea,

We have had so much fun with you guys through the years and we are looking forward to the years ahead. You both have made us very proud. Now you'll go your separate ways off to college, but no matter where you are some how you will have a little of each other, and of us with you. Work hard and stay determined to reach your goals.

We love you both so much,
Dad, Mom, and Brittni



[Magen Askew & Joseph Cook]

Joe,
We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments. We wish you success in reaching all your goals. Go Blue!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Jeff & Heather

Magen,
What a true blessing from God you are! We wish you luck and hope you will stay focused on achieving your goals as we watch you come to be a nurturing nurse, wife, and mother.
All of our love and support,
Mom, Dad, Amanda and Mel

[Clare Gilmore]

Clare, you entered the world with your eyes wide open. You still take in the world with wonder and excitement. Always stay true to yourself and what is important in life.
Love you always!
Dad, Mom,and Sid

[Amanda Stuben]

Amanda (Mandy)-
The years have passed by so quickly. We are so proud of the accomplishments and friendships that have come your way. Believe in yourself and follow your dreams.
We love you,
Dad, Mom, Gloria, and Kimberly

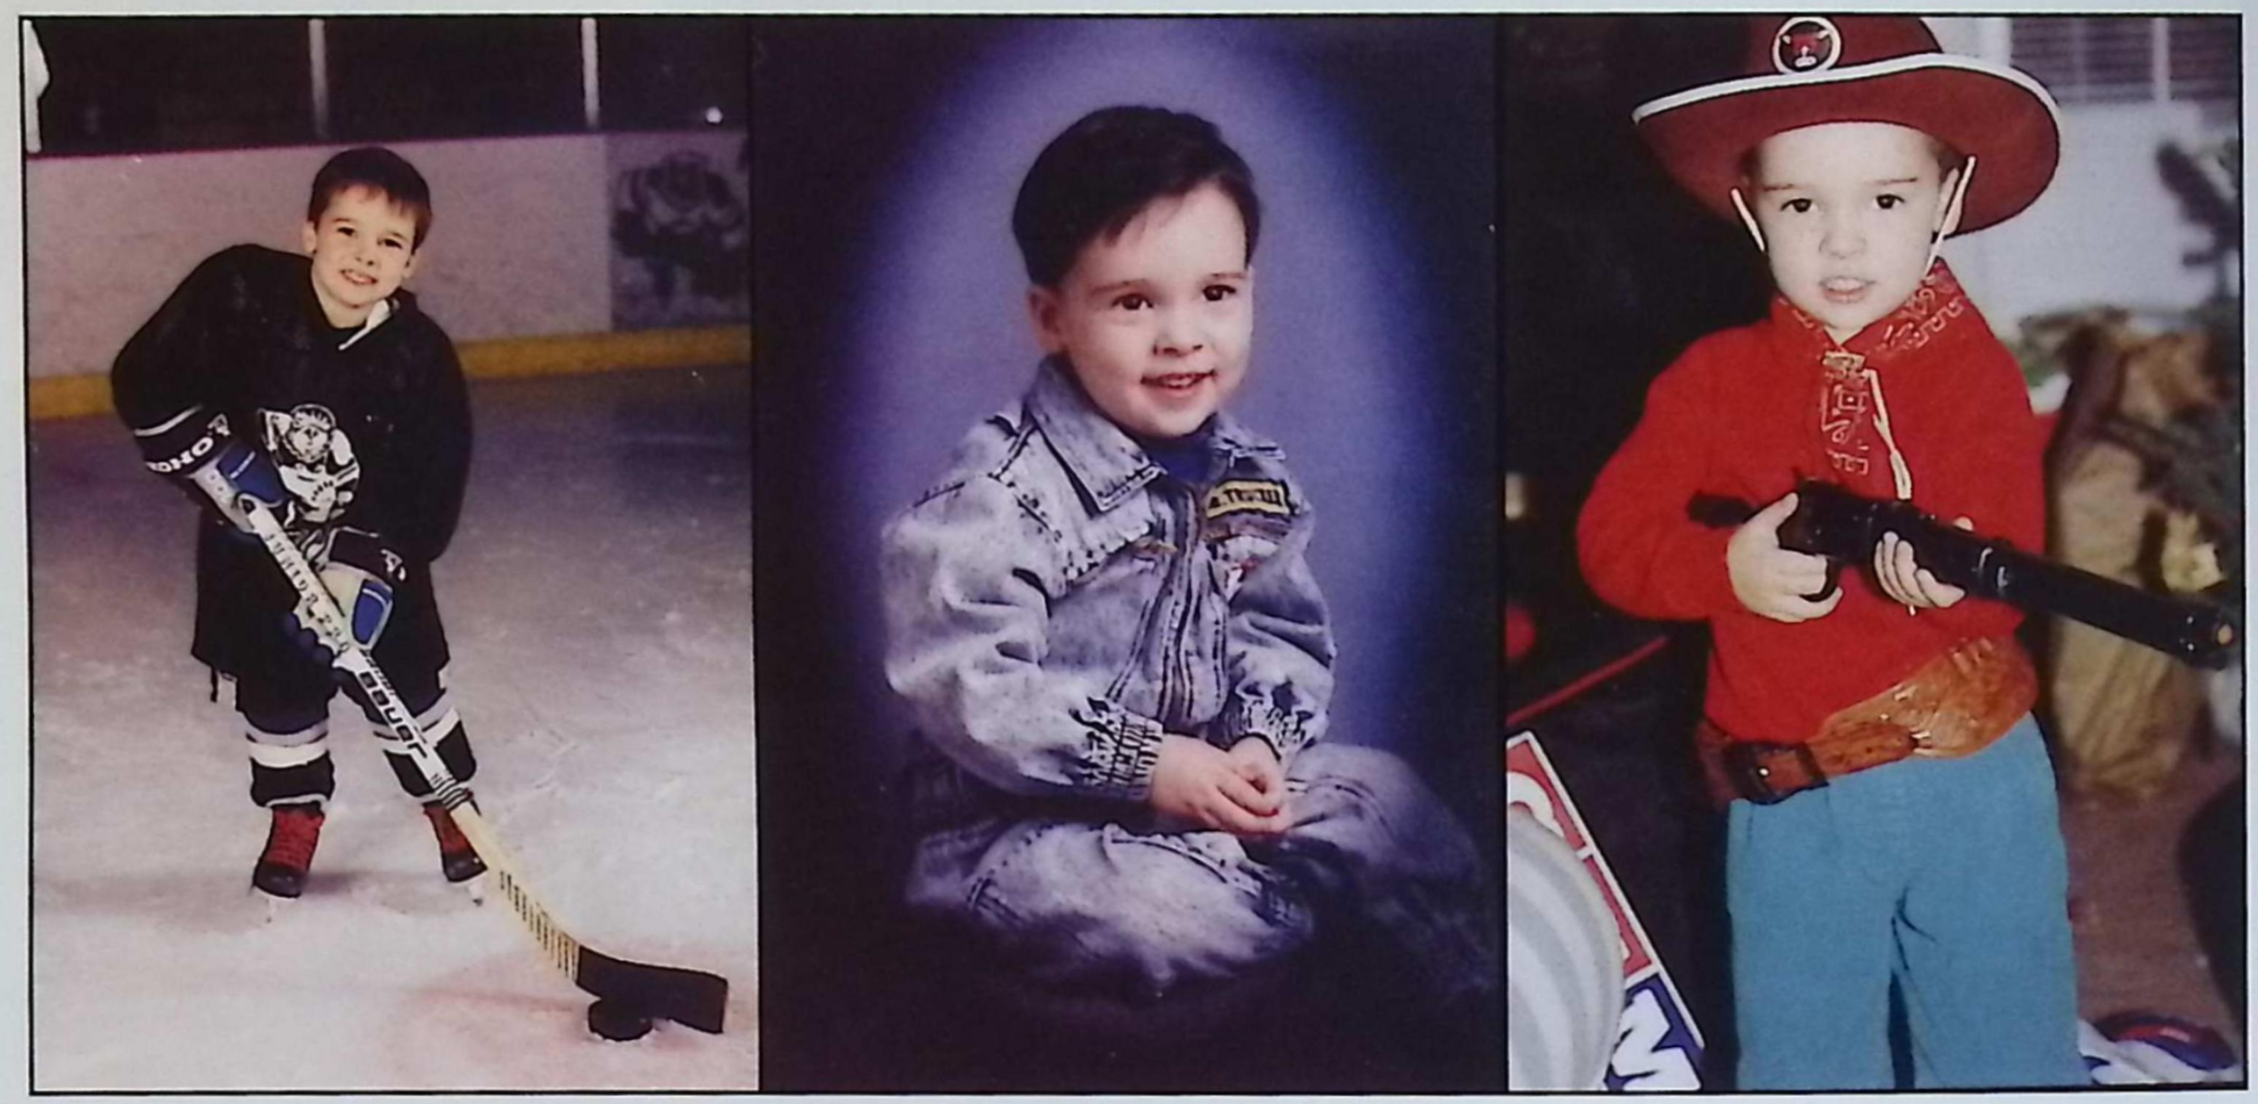
[222]

[Derek Paret]



Derek,

When you were born, we were blessed with the magic and mystery and miracle of love. We prayed the doctors were wrong and that you would be born healthy. Our prayers were answered and we have been blessed with the last 18 years of watching you grow into a strong, handsome young man full of life. Your strong morals, enthusiasm, and dedication to yourself, your family and your friends have made being your parents so rewarding. We are so proud of you!! We will continue to pray for your good health and success.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Breanne, Brian, Ashley, and Logan

[223]

[Emily Decker]

Emily,
Then and now you have always made us proud. Never stop reaching for the stars!
Love,
Mom & Dad, Eric & Jill, Jeff & Lisa, Easton, Julia & Ariella

[Angela Stoecklin]

Angie,
You have always been our little angel. We are so very proud of you. You have grown to be a remarkable woman, everybody's hero and friend. We love you so much, and know you will achieve greatness in whatever you choose to do. God bless you Angie.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Marty

P.S. I look forward to our continued hunting trips for bear and deer.
Love Dad

Troy Dietlin

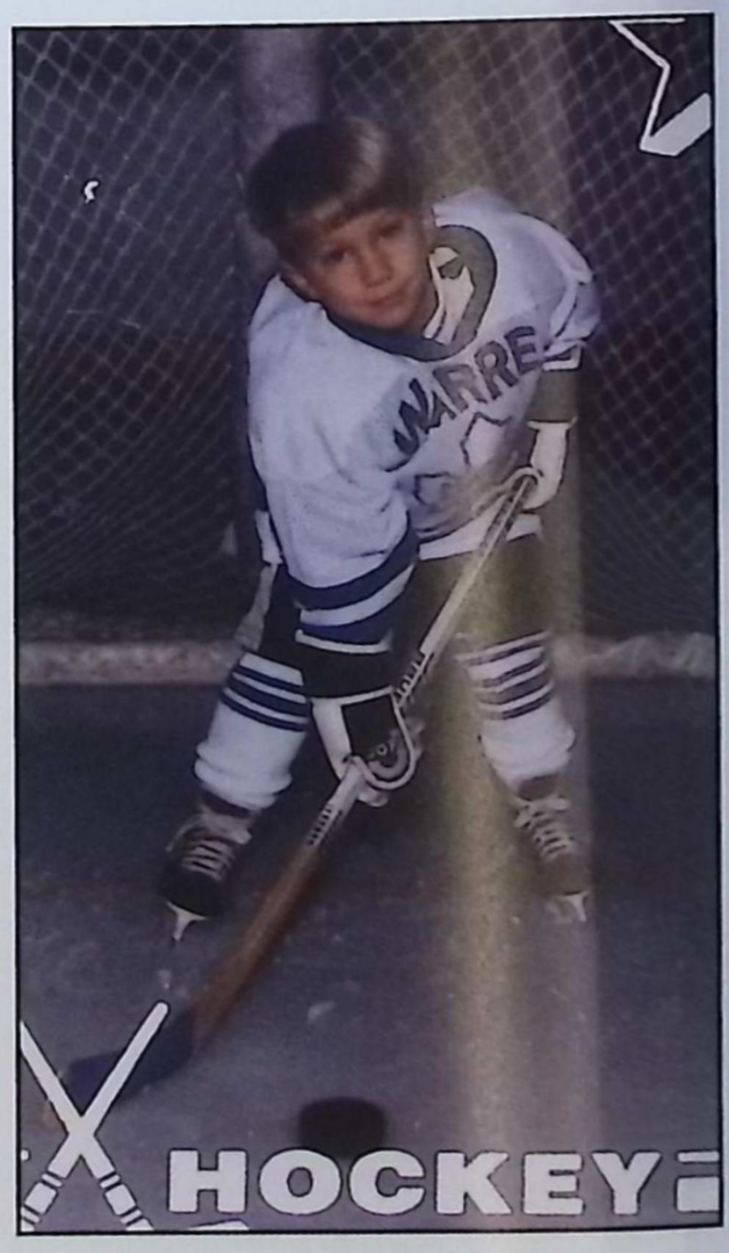
Dear Troy,
Remember that this is not the end but the beginning. Your family loves you very much and we are all very proud of the wonderful young man you have become. We are looking forward to you doing extraordinary things in the future. Be happy!
Love, Mom, Dad, Scott, Kelsey and Bridget

Kevin Craven

K. C.

You've made us proud through all your school years, with grades and athletics. We are confident you will succeed at anything you set your dreams to. Work hard, keep your sense of humor and your attitude!

Congratulations!
Love,
Mom and Alan



[Levi Ekanger]

By: Amanda Askew

[225]

Levi, you have been a shining star in our lives since the day you entered them. Words cannot describe the immense pride, joy, and happiness you have brought us through the years. Your bright personality, intelligence, and strong ethics will serve you well on your road to success; we will be there to support you all the way! We love you. Mom & Dad

"I shall be telling this with a sigh somewhere ages and ages hence: Two roads diverged in a wood, and I - I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference." - Robert Frost

[Christopher Handlon]

Christopher,

Wow, where has the time gone? It's been so amazing watching you grow into the young man that you are. Continue to believe in yourself, stay as focused as you've been and you will achieve everything you set out to do. Remember that our love goes with you... everywhere you go. We love you!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Allison

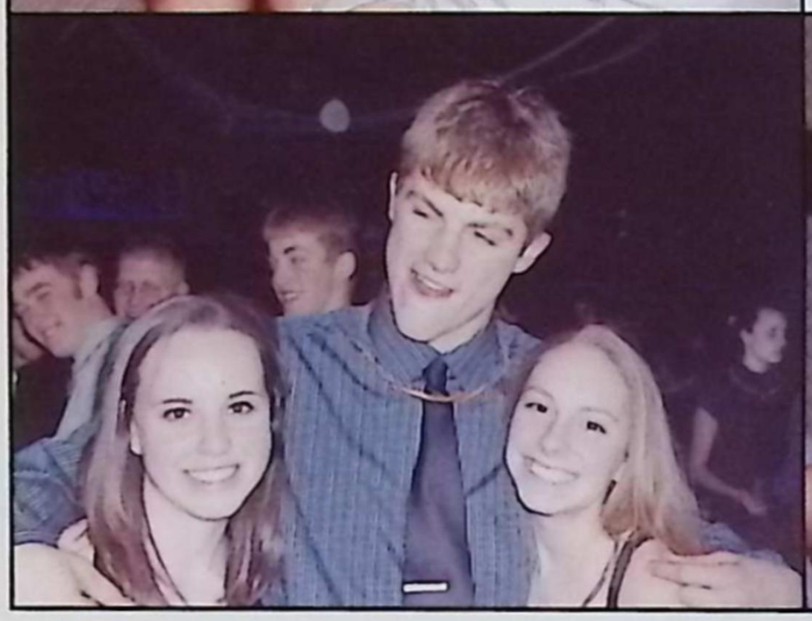
Daniel Etz & Amy Hamilton

Dear Amy-
The golden opportunity you are seeking is in yourself.

We love you so much! You are amazing! You honored and rewarded us everyday by just being you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, sisters and grandparents



Dan-
We could not ask for a better son and brother. We love you! You make us proud always and you make us laugh, constantly! We know there are great things in your future! You have been a great Saint and you will be an awesome Wolverine!
Love, Mom, Dad and Kelly

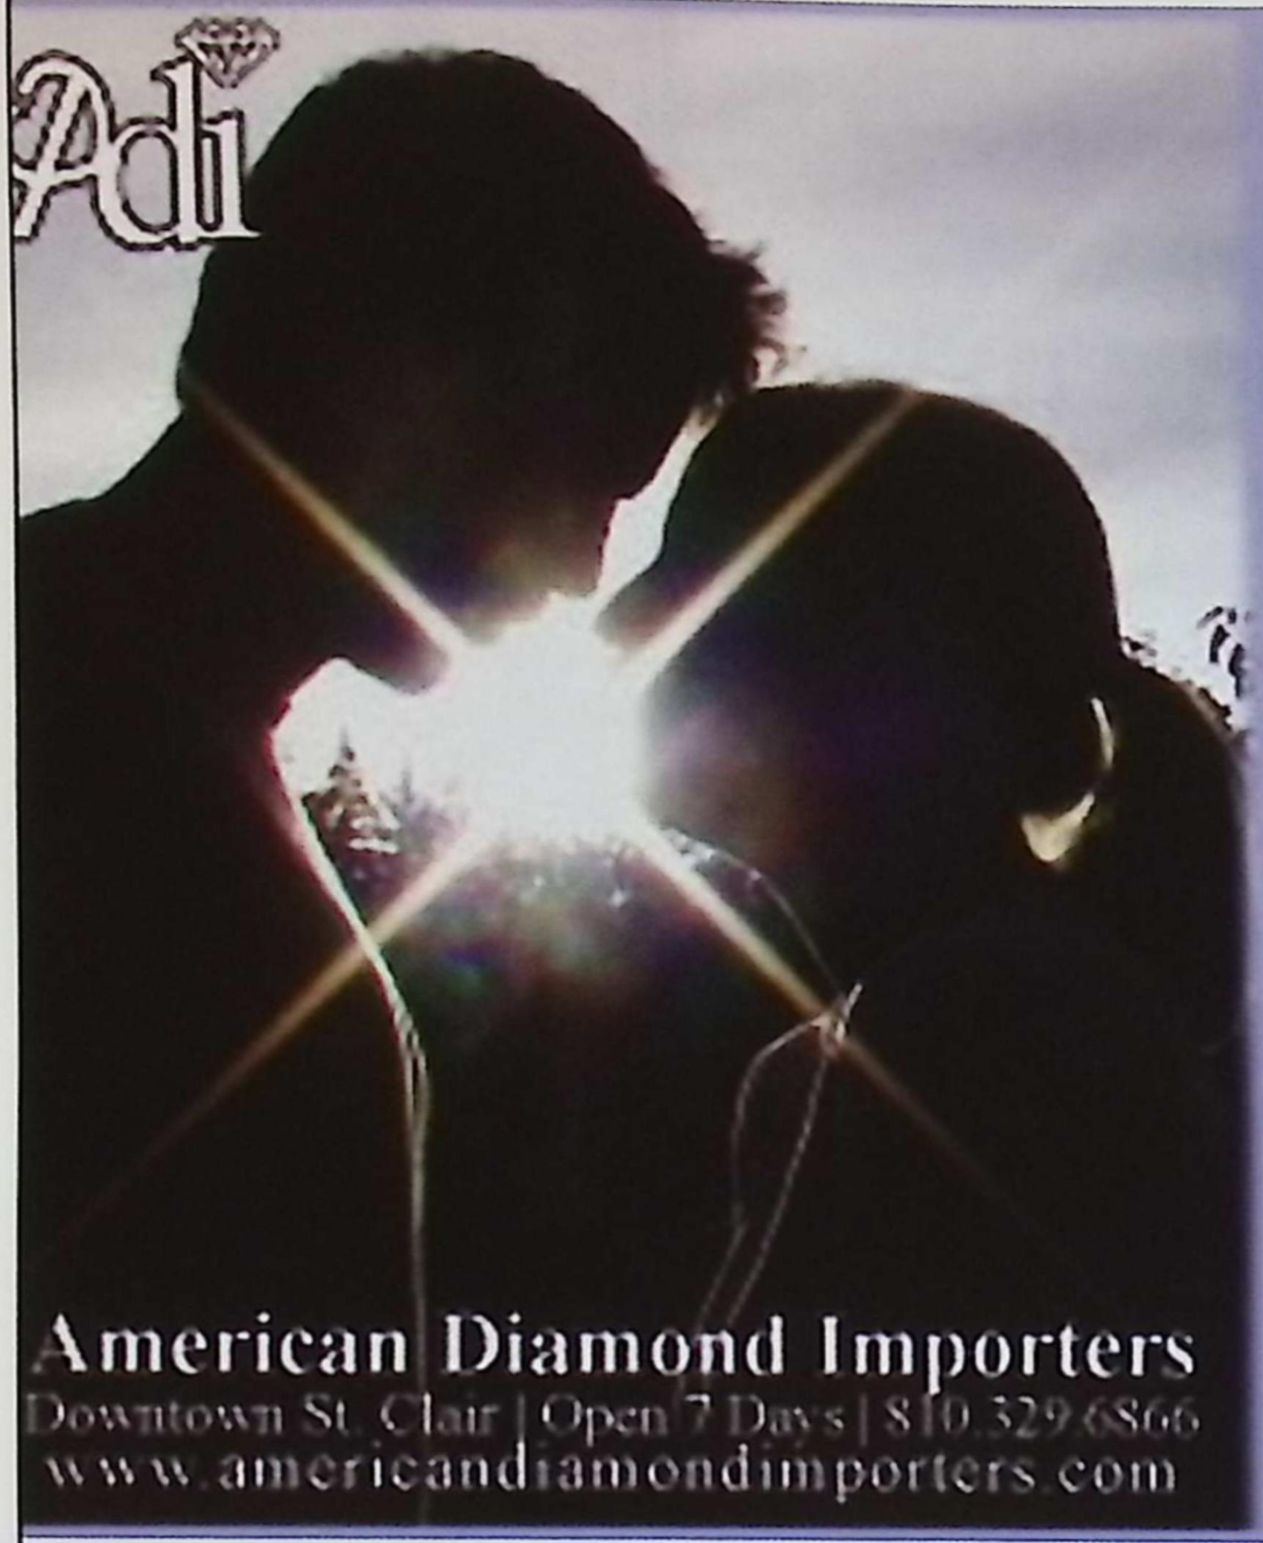
"Hold fast to dreams, for if dreams die,
life is a broken winged bird that cannot fly."
- Langston Hughes

Each and every one of you have added so much of your individualism to this book. Whether it was your artistic eye, or your creative words that were captured either on paper and in our memories; we will never forget any of you.

New yearbook staff members will never be able to replace any of you. We can only hope that those who follow in your footsteps will be able to uphold the tradition of excellence you have established.

Good luck with all of your life's endeavors and we are hoping that all of your dreams are fulfilled. We know that each of you will be successful in your own unique way!

Love always,
Yearbook Staff 07-08



Many people eventually marry their high school sweetheart.

We'll help you get a head start.

EDITORS NOTE

This year's theme started with a little outside inspiration. The (RED) idea is based off of a charity created by Bono and Bobby Shriver to increase awareness of the AIDS disease in Africa and around the world. The Gap clothing line is what first got the world's attention and seemed to start it all. Having red as one of our school colors just seemed to make our theme choice for this year easier than it has been in the past. Now it was time to put our own spin on things. Once we started thinking about this word, red suddenly became a plethora of possibilities. Different words with (RED) in them are dispersed all throughout the book. The brackets that surround the word RED were something that we used on almost every page. Once again our book is all color. However, this was hard to continue due to our declining financial stability. I designed the pages to accommodate fewer, but larger pictures, rather than lots of little pictures. I thought that this allowed us to showcase the great moments we have captured in our pictures, on a larger scale. The staff contributed to taking pictures in this book a lot more than they have in previous years. Part of this was due to the addition of Alex Benda to our class. He took many great pictures for our book and taught each and every one of us a little bit about photography or photo editing . I would also like to thank Laura Monticello for all of her help. Without her I would not have made it through some of those stressful deadlines. Mostly, I want to thank the whole staff for all of their hard work. The rest of the school has no idea the sweat, hard work and most of all time that we all put into making this book. In the end all of the work was worth it, and hopefully myself and the staff have succeeded in making this book the perfect way for students to look back upon their high school days for years to come.

The last page in the book has been something that has differed greatly with the coming and going of each and every editor. This year we have decided that we are going to start a new tradition. The last page is going to be reserved for an outstanding piece of student artwork. This year we chose a photograph by our very own Alex Benda, but this is just where we want to start. This page is going to be open for poetry, paintings, drawings or any type of creative expression that comes from a student at St. Clair High School. This is our way of including not only the work of the yearbook staff but other students as well.

Ms. Short & Ms. Peterson: Thank you for all of your help and all of the time you have spent at every SCHS event. You were a big part in making our book what it has become.

Ms. Zoeplitz, Ms. Rinehart, Ms. Steenland, & Ms. Mead: Thank you for allowing the yearbook staff to always be buzzing in and out of your office. The information you have supplied us has been a big help in the production of the book.

Mrs. Westrick: When I heard that I was to have a new yearbook adviser for my senior year, as editor, I'll admit I was a little scared. You turned out to be more than I ever could have asked for. The fact that you had never done a yearbook before brought so many new ideas to the table that had never been used before. You also showed great compassion when listening to all of the students' ideas. I felt that the staffers contributed more to this book than ever before. For not only all of this, I want to thank you for all of your time and dedication that you have put in. You helped me more than you will ever know and have in turn transformed from not just a teacher, but to a friend that I know I can always count on.

Technicalities

This year's book was published by Jostens Printing and Publishing in State College, PA. The 257 page book, once again was published in all color. The cover was not designed like usually, by just the editor, but by a team of staff members, along with the help of a Jostens artist. Our Jostens Sales Representative was Mike Page and our in-plant consultant was Shelley Foster. The headline fonts throughout the book were Swipe and Gary. The copy fonts used were Kurt, Maximo and occasionally Helvetica Condensed Black. For the first time ever we had a computer lab designated for each staffer. A total of 15 computers were equipped with Windows XP Professional. This year for the first time we made our pages online using the Jostens Yearbook Avenue Designer. We also used Adobe Photoshop and Microsoft Photo Editor to edit our digital photos.
